

Asher Bachtold

Sisters High School November 2018 Student of the Month

Asher Bachtold attributes his success to hard work and communication with his teachers. And he appreciates the support he gets.

"I have a lot of support from my family and my teachers especially," he says. "My teachers want me to succeed and they push me to my limits, out of my comfort zone."

Asher stays busy in the classroom and out. He's part of ASG and Leadership, a Key Club member and part of Link Crew. He's also a soccer player.

"I tend to do my best and am happiest when I'm involved in school," Asher says. "I love this school and the community around it and want to do things to give back... I'm an Outlaw at heart and I want to do anything I can to make the school a better place."

Bachtold is currently looking at Whitman College, where he could play Division 3 Soccer, and launch himself toward "a career with purpose."

"Asher is such a great kid. He is charismatic, intelligent, and caring. I have absolutely loved being one of Asher's teachers over the past three years. Asher has grown into a wonderful young man and I am so excited to see what he does with his future."

— Daniel O'Neill

"Asher is an amazing young man, and has been a joy to have in Chinese class all these years. Watching him play soccer, he is all over the field, running like crazy and supporting his team mates. He carries that spirit into his classes and throughout the school. He is everywhere! Sisters High would not be the same without him. Way to go, Asher! You totally deserve this award."

— David Perkins

"I appreciate the energy Asher brings to SHS. He jumps in with enthusiasm and determination when there is a need. He is genuine in conversations and his concern for others. I am especially grateful for the way he reaches out to younger students to show them they matter and to encourage them to get involved and make the most of their high school experience."

— Jami Lyn Weber

"Asher is gifted academically and athletically. I assume we'll see some great things from Asher. However, what I've enjoyed about Asher is his integrity, positive attitude and his maturity. Throughout my time conversing and observing Asher, he tries extremely hard to speak kindly and truthfully, even when there are reasons to the contrary. I voted for Asher because he represents the primary character traits we want from our Outlaws, integrity and kindness."

— Joe Hosang

"Asher Bachtold has a magnetic personality who can gel with anyone he meets regardless of age or observed differences. He is quick to accept any leadership challenge role and will put his signature flare on it with kindness. I hope he's wearing shades, because his future is so bright. Congratulations, Asher — you are a champion of a human."

— Becky Aylor

"I'm so happy that Asher will be our November Student of the Month!! Asher is a student in AP Chinese class and I am his teacher. He is a creative and innovative student who always presents awesome ideas in class. He is energetic and encouraging all the time and always shares his positive energy with people around. What's more, he tries his best to speak Chinese in class, which is also good for classroom atmosphere. I feel happy for him!"

— Liric Wu

"Asher is a bright light at SHS. He is eager to offer a smile, a hug, or a high five. His caring spirit makes others feel valued and his actions show that he truly cares about people. I know that I will miss our thought-provoking conversations, his consistent friendliness and his positive attitude. Thank you for embracing what it means to be an honorable Outlaw, Asher. Your presence will be dearly missed."

— Samra Spear

"Asher Bachtold has infectious energy. In class he drives discussion and digs deeper into topics. His inquisitive nature will continue to lead him to learn through his whole life. I know Asher will contribute as an active citizen. Asher is an integral part of our culture and community. He is supportive and looks for opportunities to be involved. It has been such a pleasure to know Asher."
