Housing waiting list to open for one week

The waiting list for the Housing Choice Voucher Program, formerly known as the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 8 program, will open Monday, January 14 at 8 a.m. and remain open through January 18, at 5 p.m.

This program is open to low-income qualified residents of Deschutes, Jefferson, and Crook counties. Applicants must apply online at www.housing-works.org/ apply/.

The housing choice

voucher program is the federal government's major program for assisting very low-income families, the elderly, and the disabled to afford decent, safe, and sanitary housing in the private market. Since housing assistance is provided on behalf of the family or individual, participants are able to find their own housing, including single-family homes, townhouses and apartments.

The participant is free to choose any housing that

Kiwanis grant recipient reports back

Last year Sisters Kiwanis awarded a career opportunity grant to Lori-Jean Pruitt. She used the funds to attend a tattoo school in Salem where she learned the art of cosmetic tattooing.

Recently, Lori-Jean presented to a Kiwanis meeting on her schooling and career plans. She mastered a number of cosmetic tattooing techniques that help patients. Her studies included skin camouflage to improve the appearance of persons with skin diseases; also scar camouflage to enhance the appearance of patients injured in accidents, from burns or surgeries. Tattoos can also help congenital disorders such as cleft palate or beauty marks. In addition, she studied microblading, the use of a specialized tool to create fine hair strokes for eyebrow enhancement.

Lori-Jean is launching her professional career at KaNui studios in Redmond.

She plans to set her prices at levels accessible to the average person, noting that cosmetic tattooing tends to be quite expensive and out of reach for many people. Her

Habitat receives grant for home

Sisters Habitat for Humanity was awarded a $7,000 grant from the US Bank Community Possible Grant Program. The funds awarded will be used toward building the future home for the Islas family, according to Sisters Habitat Executive Director Sharlene Weed.

Roberto and Nancy Islas and their three boys have lived in Sisters for 16 years. Roberto works at Hoyt's Hardware. Their future home is currently under construction, and it will be completed this summer.

"Community partners like US Bank make it possible to build homes and hope for families in Sisters," Weed said. "We are grateful for their support."

The Community Possible Grant Program provides funding for economic development issues tied to work, home, and play, according to the US Bank website. The home portion of the grant is geared toward organizations that provide access to safe and affordable housing.

Habitat has received funding for past home projects from US Bank, and employees from the Sisters branch have volunteered during Women Build Week.

Sisters Habitat for Humanity is dedicated to eliminating substandard housing locally and worldwide through constructing, rehabilitating and preserving homes; by advocating for fair and just housing policies; and by providing training and access to resources to help families improve their shelter conditions. Those interested in the homeownership or home repair program can review the qualification brochures for each program at www.sistershabitat.org and then schedule an appointment with Marie Clasen by contacting her at 541-549-1193, marie@sistershabitat.org.
