Carol Marie (Matthees) Schroeder

November 29, 1937 – January 28, 2019

Carol Marie (Matthees) Schroeder, born November 29, 1937 in Owatonna, Minnesota, passed into our Lord’s heavenly hands on January 28, 2019 while RVing in Sierra Vista, Arizona.

Carol married Earl C. Schroeder on April 8, 1961, at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Willmar Minnesota, where she worked as a telephone operator. She met Earl in Willmar, where he was stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

Carol and Earl have two sons, Mark of Turner, Oregon; and Scott who lives in Beaverton with his wife, Lisa; and two grandsons, Sam and Grant.

Carol and Earl moved to Sisters 11 years ago, coming from Salem where they lived for 40 years.

Carol retired after 22 years as a teaching assistant at Swegle Elementary School in Salem. She was a member of PEO.

The Lord, in his Almighty wisdom, sent down an angel and quietly took Carol’s soul to her heavenly home, where we are assured that she will rest in peace.

Funeral services will be held on February 9 at Shepherd Of The Hills Lutheran Church, 386 N. Fir St., Sisters, starting at 2 p.m.

Ranchers whose case sparked standoff get grazing rights

PORTLAND (AP) — Two ranchers who were convicted in 2012 of setting fires on public land in Oregon have had their grazing rights restored.

The Oregonian/OregonLive reports that former Interior Secretary Ryan Zinke, in one of his last actions before resigning, ordered the renewal of a 10-year grazing permit for Hammond Ranches Inc., run by Dwight Hammond Jr. and his son Steven Hammond. The decision dated Jan. 2 was sent out this week.

Zinke ordered the U.S. BLM to renew the grazing permit through 2024.

Last year President Donald Trump pardoned the Hammonds, whose case had prompted the armed occupation of Malheur National Wildlife Refuge in 2016, led by two sons of Nevada rancher Cliven Bundy.

In February 2014, the federal government had rejected the Hammonds’ renewal application, citing their criminal convictions for setting fire to public land.

The Hammonds had been convicted in 2012 of arson on land where they had grazing rights for their cattle. They were ordered back to prison in early 2016 to serve out five-year sentences in a case that incited right-wing militias and inspired the 41-day armed occupation of the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge, which abuts the Hammond family ranch.

But on July 10, 2018, Trump pardoned the father and son.

Bill aims to ban wildlife killing contests in Oregon

SALEM (AP) — Animal rights activists have come out in support of a bill in the Oregon Legislature that would ban killing wildlife as part of a contest.

The Humane Society of the United States cited several such contests, including the Harney County Coyote Classic, in eastern Oregon. Five contests cited by the group involved killing coyotes, with the teams killing the most winning prizes.

Robert Wielgus, a retired professor and director of the Large Carnivore Conservation Lab at Washington State University, said such contests don’t result in less livestock depredation or in increased deer population.

The Senate bill, sponsored by seven Democratic lawmakers, would make such contests illegal.
