

Sisters Saloon launches music series

Sisters Saloon will host a series of summer concerts "On The Patio" featuring national and regional touring acts.

Ian Egan, a former Sisters resident who has returned to town after working in the music industry, is promoting the events.

"As of right now, it'll be about two shows a month," he said.

The season will start with the Saloon's traditional Sisters Rodeo activities and will end on Labor Day.

"We're really excited," Egan said. "I always thought that this would be a perfect spot for some concerts. Aaron (Okura) and the Saloon came along and we just reached a perfect partnership."

Egan has announced two shows so far for the series: The Cherry Poppin' Daddies, set for Saturday, June 22, and one-man band loop master Tony Smiley for July 6.

The Eugene-based Cherry Poppin' Daddies recently released an album, "Bigger Life," that "will allow us to touch base with our punk/ska audience," singer and bandleader Steve Perry said.

Tickets for the Daddies show are on sale now through www.sisterssaloon.net and bendticket.com.

Egan said that local free shows will continue as part of the Saloon's musical offerings.

Evening of Rodeo history postponed

The third Three Sisters Historical Society Fireside Stories Evening – "Eight Seconds in Sisters: Early History of the Rodeo" – was originally scheduled for Tuesday, March 19, but has been rescheduled for Tuesday, April 23, 7 p.m., at FivePine Conference Center.

The change was necessitated due to the unpredictability of the weather, speakers' illnesses, and another's work schedule, all of which kept the presenters from being able to gather to discuss the program and decide on their stories. The April date should provide plenty of time for the weather to improve and everyone to regain full health.

The evening will include some cowboy poetry from A. K. Moss, a short history of the rodeo by Bonnie Malone, and memories, stories, and maybe a few lies in a round-table conversation by men long-connected with the rodeo.

The Rodeo Association will be selling the 2019 poster featuring a barrel racer. Antique rodeo equipment and memorabilia will be on display.

"Confluence – An Evening of Stories, Poetry and Song with Oregon's Poet Laureate Kim Stafford" is set for Tuesday, April 8, 7 p.m., at FivePine Conference Center.
