To the Editor:

Over the next two months, about this time of the year, we see our country's flag displayed all over our town, and for special reasons.

May 18 is Armed Forces Day, to honor our military forces, Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

On the last Monday in May, Memorial Day, we remember all military who fought and died, knowing that freedom is never free.

On June 14, known as Flag Day, we give special attention to the meaning and symbolism of our U.S. flag. Sometimes called "Old Glory" or "Stars and Stripes," we honor what it stands for — FREEDOM.

And then there is Independence Day, celebrated on the Fourth of July, a day of our Declaration of Independence. Although our country's flags have changed and matured over the past 243 years, the freedom for which it stands is recognized by all nations of the world. I'm always proud when our flag passes before me.

Our colors are visible all over Sisters, about 150 I'd guess. In front of all governmental buildings, schools, business and homes. Take a little time to stop, and maybe give a salute to honor our flag.

All summer long, visitors who come to Sisters Country can see, with pride, our country's flag. May we always be the "Land of the Free and Home of the Brave."
