

MANHUNT: Suspect was collared in Sisters after major police response

24, at approximately 2:32 a.m., the department received a report that two subjects had been shot on the 500 block of Surrey Lane in Sweet Home, Linn County.

Sweet Home Police Officers and Linn County Sheriff’s Deputies responded to the scene and located two male victims on the property. One male subject was pronounced dead at the scene and the other male was transported to the hospital. The dead man was identified as Corey A. Burdick, 43, from Sweet Home.

Ervin Larry Smith, 65, from Sweet Home, was also the victim of a gunshot wound and was transported to the hospital. The incident occurred in and around a travel trailer occupied by Ervin Smith on the property of 541 Surrey Lane in Sweet Home, Oregon.

“We believe there was a disagreement, a dispute, that turned physical at the location where the incident happened,” Chief Lynn told The Nugget. Butterfield fled the area.

– Chief Jeff Lynn

“We sent out an attempt to locate basically statewide, listing Butterfield as a suspect as well as the vehicle he was in that had been reported stolen,” Chief Lynn said.
An Oregon State Police trooper apparently spotted Butterfield in a development Chief Lynn described as “absolutely fantastic.” A man-hunt ensued in the area of Ray’s Food Place, involving a large number of law enforcement personnel and vehicles. Butterfield was eventually taken into custody by Oregon State Police.

Chief Lynn said on Monday that, since his detectives arrived back in Sweet Home in the wee hours of Monday morning, he had yet to be briefed fully on the full circumstances of Butterfield’s arrest.
“I do know that he’s in custody; he’s in our facility, pending transfer to Linn County Jail,” Chief Lynn said.

Butterfield is currently facing charges of murder and attempted murder and additional charges are likely.
