Children had a great time painting rocks at Sisters Farmers Market.

Buttons and fountains and rocks, oh my!

Kids are making Sisters Farmers Market their own. Look out for kids painting rocks, making buttons, and starring in talent shows. You'll see some running through the fountains at the splash pad (bring a towel). Some may have green hearts painted on their cheeks! Sometimes they even sell lemonade. Kid Made Camp students will sell their smoothies and handmade crafts coming up in August. Kids can do it! The market happens on Sundays from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Fir Street Park.

Singing the National Anthem

"It was a really big honor to sing the National Anthem at the Sisters Rodeo. I was super nervous when I started, but I tried to focus on the flag and the song. I hope I made lots of people happy!"

— Naomi Bennette, age 11

JOKES! JOKES! JOKES!

Why did the bird cross the road? To get to the other seed.
— Elliot E., age 4

What do you call a bear with no teeth? A gummy bear!
— Zephyr Sharp, age 4

Why did the chicken cross the playground? To get to the other slide!
— Gusty Berger-Brown, age 8

Send in your own joke! Email it to kidsinprint@nuggetnews.com along with your name, and age or grade level.
