

Jelly Bread to take stage at Sisters Saloon

Sisters Saloon & Ranch Grill will serve up Jelly Bread on the outdoor patio Friday, July 19. It's not a new menu item — it's the next installment of the Saloon's summer concert series.

Doors open at 6 p.m., the free show starts at 7 p.m.

Over a few short years of touring, Jelly Bread has risen from Reno/Lake Tahoe-area favorites into a powerhouse quintet with a high-energy calling card that delivers a high-energy playlist all over the United States. Jelly Bread's distinctive style is identified by a blend of desert twang meeting the urban tones of funk and rock. Exceptional songwriting and storytelling interlaced with four-part harmonies, intricate "in-the-pocket" drum and bass grooves, swampy lap steel guitar, dirt-under-the-fingernails guitar licks, tasty talkbox, "take-'em-to-church" organ come together into a sound that is downright appetizing.

"Here, There & Everywhere," Jelly Bread's upcoming album, is due to be released this fall. The album was mixed by renowned engineer/producer Justin Phelps (Cake, Galactic, Fruition, The Mars Volta, The Neville Brothers, and Dead Kennedys among many others).

Jelly Bread has performed direct support for the likes of Robert Cray, Robert Randolph and the Family Band, Moe, Rusted Root, JJ Grey, Dragon Smoke (members of Galactic), The Motet, Ivan Neville's Dumpstaphunk, Lukas Nelson and the Promise of the Real, Pimps of Joytime, Sister Sparrow and the Dirty Birds, Allen Stone Band, Orgone, Kyle Hollingsworth Band, Carolyn Wonderland, and The California Honeydrops. The band has also appeared at premiere festivals including the Xerox Rochester International Jazz Festival, Safeway Waterfront Blues Festival, High Sierra, Joshua Tree, Strawberry, and

Man gets 20 yrs. for deadly crash

PRINEVILLE (AP) — A Prineville man has been sentenced to 20 years for a drunk driving crash that killed two people, and had his driving privileges revoked for life.

Justin Dewey Bittick was sentenced Thursday in Crook County Circuit Court. The October 2017 crash killed Caleb Austin Williams, 23, and Stephan Mitchell Leader-Bowles, 21.

The Bend Bulletin reports that Bittick was celebrating at a bar in Prineville when he invited a group of four back to his home. Police say Bittick drove erratically and at high speeds before his vehicle rolled over about 20 miles southwest of Prineville.
