For 24 years the Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration on Brooks Camp Road in Sisters has supported the Sisters community through its annual Country Fair and Art Show.

Through the years the church has contributed over $250,000 to local support agencies such as Family Action Network, Kiwanis Food Bank, Neighbor Impact, Sisters Habitat for Humanity, Healthy Beginnings, Bethlehem Inn, Circle of Friends, and Saving Grace.

The distributed funds come from a community Art Show and Country Fair which will be held August 9-10. Beginning Friday night is the "invitation" Art Show/Sale and Silent Auction from 5 to 8 p.m. with diverse art and the opportunity to enjoy refreshments and mingle with the artists.

The Art Show and Country Fair continue on Saturday, August 10, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with the Art Show/Sale, the Marketplace, and more silent auctions. The Country Store offers homemade preserves, fresh produce, candy, pies, cakes, home-baked breads and cookies, potted plants, and handmade craft items.

The Good Book store offers a great selection of gently read books. The Sweet Tooth booth dishes up famous homemade Marionberry cobbler with ice cream. Face painting, a bouncy castle, children's games, cake walks, fire truck tours and animals can be followed by hamburgers and hot dogs, coleslaw and chips at the Café Transfig.

All proceeds go back to the Sisters community.

The Church of the Transfiguration is located at the corner of Hwy. 242 and Brooks Camp Road. For more information call 541-549-7087.

Kid Made introduces food cart camp

Can young kids run a real, certified food cart? Can they prepare delicious food safely — and learn to become entrepreneurs? According to Angelena Bosco, founder of Kid Made Camp, the answer is a definite yes.

"Working for money is fun," said Bosco. "Kids can do anything."

As she knows from the many youth and children's cooking classes she has taught, "They love preparing and serving food."

Kid Made Camp's inaugural food cart camp will take place August 19–23. Campers will staff a real food cart and make smoothies on Sunday, August 25, at Sisters Farmers Market. Classes are limited to a small group, so that all
