the industrial park, making the post-race festivities especially enjoyable, according to Meissner.

“Everything about the day had a lot of great energy, and the brew fest afterwards was a lot of fun,” he said.

The event, in part, is a fundraiser for the Sisters High School swim team. Meissner is confident and committed to seeing the race attract more participants.

“I think we got off to a good start, so with good word of mouth before next year, I definitely see the race growing.”

Bulk food event supports farm alliance

The fourth annual Central Oregon Fill Your Pantry event is Saturday, November 9, at OSU-Cascades Tykeson Hall in Bend from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m..

Fill Your Pantry is a community bulk-buying event created so Central Oregonians can fill up their pantries, freezers, root cellars, and garages full of nutritious local products for the long winter.

Fill Your Pantry allows eaters to stock up on potatoes, onions, carrots, winter squash, garlic, honey, flours, apples, pears, dried beans, nuts, krauts, pasture-raised meats, and more.

Pre-ordering will be available, October 20 to November 3. Pre-ordering helps farmers and ranchers estimate how much to bring to the event and also guarantees the customer will get the products they desire. Pre-orders are not mandatory, but ensure that you get the products you want before they sell out.

Pre ordered items must be picked up at the Fill Your Pantry event on November 9.

Proceeds benefit High Desert Food & Farm Alliance (HDFFA). HDFFA’s mission is to support a healthy and thriving food and farm network in Central Oregon.

Showing of ‘The Blind Side’ to spark discussion

As a continuation of their Creativity, Culture and Faith series, Sisters Community Church, in collaboration with Sisters Movie House, will sponsor “The Blind Side” on Wednesday, October 9, 6:45 p.m. at Sisters Movie House.

This film is a heartwarming biopic based on contemporary facts regarding the life of NFL player Michael Oher. It delves into family values, integrity of character, and the personal transformation that can occur as a result of a simple act of kindness. It also explores the courage required to step out of one’s comfort zone, to live in a manner that embodies one’s values, and wrestles with the question: “Who is my neighbor?”

An open discussion will follow the showing of the film.

These topics seem particularly relevant as the Sisters community is, and will continue, to encounter circumstances that challenge Sisters to demonstrate good will and remain true to what we have always been — a thoughtful and generous community.

The tickets are free and available during the week at the Sisters Community Church office or at the Welcome Center on Sunday mornings.
