

Folk music bard to return to Sisters

Doug and Katie Cavanaugh welcome Johnsmith back to the HarmonyHouse stage on Saturday, October 26.

The HarmonyHouse is an intimate house-concert venue and is the perfect environment to hang on every note of one of Sisters' favorite bards.

John said about the HarmonyHouse, "It's like being in the inside of a guitar!"

In addition to being a Kerrville New Folk winner, Johnsmith has released eight solo CDs to rave reviews, leads musical tours to Ireland, teaches songwriting, and has served as a staff songwriter in Nashville. He has performed multiple times at the Sisters Folk Festival.

With his faded jeans, his twinkly blue eyes, and his infectious smile, John immediately connects with audiences. You get the sense of a man who loves his life, his family and friends, and who loves nothing more than sharing that love in song and stories all across this land.

HarmonyHouse Concerts are located at 17505 Kent

Rd., off Cloverdale Road east of Sisters. Doors open at 7 p.m.; music begins at 8. A suggested $20 donation goes to the artist.

Arts & Culture grant funds available

The Deschutes County Board of Commissioners' application process for its Arts & Culture grants program is now open.

This marks the third year that Deschutes County will offer this grant opportunity, which is designed to increase arts and culture opportunities and make arts and culture education available to Deschutes County residents.

A total of $20,000 will be distributed to local non-profit organizations. Last year, 16 groups were selected for grants ranging from $500 to $4,000. Funding is supplied by the County's portion of proceeds from video lottery gaming.

Eligible applicants are local non-profit organizations with programs or projects that meet the following criteria:

- Seek to increase arts and culture opportunities in Deschutes County.

- Make arts and culture education available to Deschutes County residents.

Organizations interested in being considered can apply online at www.deschutes.org/grants. Applications are due by 5 p.m. on Friday, November 15.
