When you're trying to make your Sisters home the best it can be, you're looking for a wide range of experience and expertise. And that's just what Mike Jones of Jones Upgrades brings to his clients.

With 30 years of experience, Jones Upgrades can build you a shed or a pole barn from scratch and build all kinds of fences and decks. Mike can install windows, doors and trim and can handle any kind of drywall job. Tile work and all sorts of flooring (except carpet) are also part of the skill set. Need a kitchen or a bath remodel? Mike will help you create a vision to get the best results.

If a complete remodel is in order, Jones Upgrades is ready for the whole job (except roofing).

High Lakes Health Care

At High Lakes Health Care, the staff makes a conscious effort to give patients a wide array of individualized care. They believe in showing compassion and understanding with all patients. They enjoy practicing medicine in this small community. Because the doctors get to know you, as a person, they can focus on what's important to you, and can help you reach your health goals, working together as a team.

The staff at High Lakes live, work, and play in the Sisters community, and are here for you. We are now offering online scheduling as well as same-day urgent care appointments to meet your needs.

From their small clinic in Sisters, Drs. Kevin and Eden Miller have reached out internationally to share their expertise in cutting-edge work in chronic disease management and prevention. With the addition of David Kirkpatrick, PA, they are able to do this work and care for the local community in a timely and effective manner.

EZ Farrier Service

Zack Gulick knew from the first time he accompanied a farrier on his rounds that this is the trade he wants to pursue as a career.

A love for horses and a passion for blacksmithing combine to bring him a deep pride and satisfaction in his craft – and a desire to keep perfecting it.

Zack knows how important responsiveness is, so he responds to calls within one business day. He listens to his clients, assesses the needs of the horse and designs just the right shoe to fit the horse and its particular needs.

"I do all hand-mades," he notes. "I specialize in any type of hot shoeing and therapeutic shoeing or corrective shoeing."

The well-being and performance of our horses all starts with their feet, and Zack Gulick takes the critical nature of his work to heart.

Zack is a competitive shoer, using the test of skills as a means of constantly improving his skills and his time management – all with an eye to providing the best, most efficient service possible to Sisters' equestrian community.
