

Quilts for kids...

PHOTO PROVIDED

East of the Cascades Quilters Guild members joined Quilts For Kids on February 19 at Stitchin' Post to make pillowcases for Central Oregon children. The group made 56 pillowcases that will be donated to Sisters Family Access Network (FAN), Sisters Park & Recreation District (SPRD) preschool, and Ryan's Cases for Smiles at St. Charles Medical Center. Last year Quilts for Kids donated 106 quilts and 111 pillowcases to Black Butte Ranch Police and Deschutes County Sheriffs, Sisters FAN, Sisters-Camp Sherman Fire Department, Sisters Kiwanis Food Bank, Toys for Tots, SPRD preschool, MA Lynch Head Start and St. Charles Medical Center. This is one way these local quilters give back to the community and bring smiles to the kids who receive these hand-made gifts.

Sisters salutes...

Sisters Trails Alliance (STA) sends a huge thank you to Brad Boyd (Eurosports) and Katie and Nick Beasley (Cascade Street Distillery) for hosting the first 2020 Toast the Trails gathering. Close to 50 folks enjoyed snacks and hand-crafted beverages while getting an update from STA about what's new on the trails this year. Much appreciation to the STA members and donors who make it possible for everyone to enjoy an amazing trail system.
