

Sisters man dies in highway accident

A 70-year-old Sisters man was killed crossing Highway 20 west of town in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Oregon State Police reported that on Saturday, February 29, at approximately 5:18 a.m. emergency personnel responded to a vehicle crash on Highway 20 near mile post 98.

Preliminary investigation revealed that an International box truck, operated by Wallace Cook Jr., age 37, of Portland, was eastbound on Highway 20 when a pedestrian, Richard Vogt of Sisters, crossed the highway in front of the truck and was struck.

Vogt sustained fatal injuries.

Cook called 911 and is cooperating with the investigation. OSP was assisted by Deschutes County Sheriff's Office, Sisters Fire Department, and ODOT on the scene.

Sisters Folk Festival seeks artist proposals

Sisters Folk Festival is seeking artists' proposals for work honoring all those who have supported the organization's acquisition of the Sisters Art Works building.

To celebrate the success of the $1.4 million Connected by Creativity capital campaign, and to acknowledge the more than 150 individual contributors, businesses and foundations that made the building and land purchase and upgrades possible, the organization is putting out a formal Request for Proposals from local and regional artists and craftsmen to design an acknowledgement edifice, plaque, structure, landscape feature or other creative approach.

The installation will be located outside the building and will identify the donors that helped complete phase one of the capital campaign. Collaborative projects are welcome.

Completion of phase one of the Connected by Creativity campaign has ensured that Sisters Folk Festival will retain control of the annual festival's largest music venue, and will provide opportunities to increase workshops and classes in the building, expand the organization's outreach in the community, and create a site option for construction of the phase two multi-use performance venue that is the ultimate goal of Sisters Folk Festival's campaign.

Design proposals will be accepted through April 15. Project budget is $5,000 to include all phases of design, site preparation, materials, labor and construction. Project selection will be made by an internal committee of staff, board members and other stakeholders.

For more information, or to request the formal RFP, email steven@sistersfolkfestival.org.
