Bend Heating

Things are heating up in Sisters Country, and Bend Heating can help you keep your cool — while saving you a whole lot of money.

Cut your energy expenses by 50 to 70 percent with a new, quality heat pump. With manufacturers' rebates and a Central Electric Cooperative cash incentive of up to $1,850, the opportunities to save are tremendous — and you also get enhanced reliability, greatly increased comfort, and a far more quiet unit thanks to modern technology and quality installation.

Bend Heating was founded in 1953, making it the oldest full-service HVAC company in Central Oregon. They've served the community for more than 60 years because they offer quality work, delivered on time with courtesy and a commitment to excellence. From residential or commercial retrofit to custom residential work, from radiant heat to high-efficiency heat pump water heaters, Bend Heating is at the forefront of technological developments in the field.
