Josie's Best

Josie's Best is one of the great Sisters entrepreneurial success stories — a family business that turned a desire for a quality alternative for people with food sensitivities into a thriving enterprise that is making life better for families everywhere.

Josie's Best produces gluten-free baking mixes that provide classic tastes and textures that leave people in disbelief that what they are eating is really gluten-free.

Their mission is to provide products that are not "good for gluten free" but great overall products, including gluten-free pancake mix, gluten-free waffle mix, gluten-free crepe mix, and gluten-free all-purpose flour, with both retail and food-service options.

Josie's Best products are carried locally at Oliver Lemon's and the Camp Sherman Store, and they are now in natural food stores all across the Pacific Northwest. Alternatively, they can be ordered on amazon.com.

Richardson Log Homes

A log home is the iconic symbol of a way of life that is intimately connected to the land — and the classic log home is especially beloved in the alpine and high desert landscape of Sisters Country.

In addition to the handcrafted touch of their custom-built homes, Richardson Log Homes restores and maintains log homes so that they become a lasting legacy for your family.

Richardson Log Homes is a family-owned and operated construction company with a deep commitment to excellence in every aspect of their work, from log home inspection to restoration, routine maintenance to new construction. They partner together with customers to build the home of their dreams.

Using the full-scribe or chink-style method they handcraft a work of art with integrity and a high standard of excellence — seasoned craftsmanship that comes from decades of fulfilling clients' dreams.

Aqua Clear

Folks in Sisters are clamoring to purchase a hot tub — for all of the benefits to health and well-being that they bring. Time in the hot tub not only soothes the aches and pains of daily living — it's a profound stress-reliever.

Trouble is, pandemic shutdowns have upended the supply chain and hot tubs are very hard to find.

Aqua Hot Tubs in Sisters acted quickly and aggressively to grab a spot in the production schedule, ordering 30 hot tubs and one swim spa — a huge order for the local outfit — so that they will be positioned to serve their customers this summer.

The hot tubs will likely arrive in August. Aqua Hot Tubs will take pre-orders, and list out what has been sold and what is available — so act now to get your place in line.

In the meantime, Aqua Clear spa service provides top-notch maintenance services and they're keeping very busy getting Sisters set for summer. Inquire about employment opportunities.
