Sisters Folk Festival announces 2021 virtual AMERICANA SONG ACADEMY FOR YOUTH

PHOTO PROVIDED

Singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist Jenner Fox will serve as the 2021 camp director.

Americana Song Academy for Youth, offered as a virtual experience in 2021, is an inspiring weekend of creative community-building for high-school-aged youth through music making and songwriting.

Sisters Folk Festival (SFF) is hosting its 14th annual Americana Song Academy for Youth (ASAY) Friday through Sunday, April 23-25. The ASAY provides a non-competitive format for high school youth to learn the basics of songwriting, performing, and overall musicianship from professional musicians and one another. Because it is virtual this year, students from around the country are welcome to participate.

The camp director, Jenner Fox, a singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist said, "We will begin on a Friday night with blank notebooks. On Sunday we will end Ethan Hosang chocked up his second victory in as many tries at a home meet held Thursday, March 18, on the scenic Big Meadow Golf Course at Black Butte Ranch.

The event marked the first time the cross-country team held a race at BBR, and the move proved tremendously successful as coaches, athletes, and fans raved about the beauty and quality of the grassy course.

"We can't possibly express adequately to the generous people at Black Butte Ranch how well this worked out for all of the teams," said Head Coach Josh Nordell. "Jeff Fought could not have been more helpful and accommodating."

Unlike last week, when Hosang bided his time for two miles before pulling away from Summit's top

Veterans program under new leadership

Warfighter Outfitters Incorporated and partner organizations Team Overland and Veterans Back 40 Adventures accepted Brett Miller's request to resign as president of the organization earlier this year.

The WFO Board of Directors held a meeting February 9 to elect new leadership; Cort Horner of Sisters was nominated and elected as president of the organization. He looks forward to continuing to grow and serve the organization's mission and goals of "Veterans Helping Veterans on the Waters and Beyond" and continuing to expand outreach, resources, and partnerships within the community and beyond.

"We appreciate everything Brett has done as founder and bringing WFO to its current status and appreciate his assistance during the transition to the new leadership and board of directors," Horner stated.

Warfighter Outfitters Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit guide and outfitter comprised of a full veteran board of directors that have made a point of serving our nation's veterans through no-charge guiding and outfitting adventures, with the philosophy of veterans helping veterans through fishing and hunting and engagement opportunities with Team Overland and Veterans Back 40 Adventures.

As the COVID-19 crisis continues to affect gatherings, please contact individual organizations for current meeting status
