Greetings from HALIA! This fun-loving dog is looking for a family that has northern breed experience and plenty of time for outdoor activities. Halia is an exuberant and rambunctious smart girl that will need a family who has the time to provide her with the daily exercise and enrichment she requires to stay happy and healthy. She will also do very well in a structured training class and may even be up to the challenge of advanced learning, such as agility training and tricks. If you are looking for a young, clever and energetic dog with a lot of love to give, this is the pup for you!
