DIDN'T WANT THE AIR ROUTE.

Some of the civil service examinations have about as close connection with the work to be done, as the curve in a pig's tail has to do with the weather next week. A story is told of a colored lad who, during an examination of applicants for the position of mail carrier, appeared before the civil service commission. "How far is it from the earth to the moon?" was the first question asked him. "How far am it from de earf to de moon?" he repeated, as he began to reach for his hat. "Say, boss if you's gwine to put me on dat route I don't want de job."

Save the Schools

Citizens of foreign birth and decent, Americans! To you we desire to come with a plea for the schools of higher learning in the State of Oregon, for they are indeed in great danger. In seven years, the number of their students has increased 150 per cent, but their income has increased less than four per cent.

That is, students have increased about 40 times as fast as income.

Unless the State provides more support in the election of May 21, these schools

Must Turn Away Fully 2,000 Students

On May 21, a bill for the relief of these schools will be voted upon. All who believe in education are respectfully urged to vote number 310 X yes.

The People From the Northlands have never failed to support education in the past, and they

WILL NOT FAIL NOW!

The institutions of higher learning in Oregon, are the University, the Oregon Agricultural College, and the Oregon Normal School. If public education fails, America's free institutions are in danger of failing.

LINCOLNISMS

A true leader ain't afeard o' loneliness.
Ye can't do wot's right 'thout yer willin' to suffer wot's wrong.
The man with one idear is allus laughed at by them with none.
The feller at the foot of the ladder mout climb up a rung or two if he wan't so tarnation busy pullin' others dcwn.
Don't git discouraged. Even if yer only a oyster, an openin' 'll come some day.
It's easier to feel good than to be good.
Small talk often causes big scandals.
A rollin' stone don't climb.
Sweden's imports for 1919 exceeded exports by $175,000,000. The total imports exceeded two billion kroner.
