

THE WESTERN AMERICAN

LARGER

Than The Oregonian or The Telegram or The News

Although The Oregon Journal is less than twenty-one years old it has outdistanced all its competitors—and has come to be the newspaper with the largest daily circulation in Portland—the home territory.

There are reasons why The Journal has come to be the most widely read newspaper in Portland. First and foremost—it has ever held true to the principle that it should fight for those things that promise the greatest good for the greatest number.
