Music Bulletin ... page 5

FREE

★ ★ ★ September 23 - September 30, 1982 ★ ★ ★

What's Happening

EFT

A Weekly Guide to Events and Entertainment

Vol. I No. 2 Sept. 23, 1982 This Week in Eugene & Springfield Published Every Thursday

Thursday 23

Speakers

Margie Hendriksen, Peter deFazio, Ed Weeks, and Irv Fletcher are the featured speakers at a public forum sponsored by Lane Coalition to Save Jobs at 7:30 tonight at the First Congregational Church Fellowship Hall, 1050 E. 23rd in Eugene. Wheelchair access. Childcare available—call in advance, 345-1873.

Meetings

Women's Night Out, a bi-weekly women's group, shares music this week. So bring your instruments and music. For more info, call 345-2271.

Oregon Association of Railway Passengers Eugene-Springfield Chapter is meeting at 7:00 tonight in the Board Room of the Eugene Public Library, 100 W. 13th. Clark Winston Cox has more information at 687-2775.

Workshop

Kimberly Glasco will teach intermediate and advanced ballet classes at the Eugene Ballet Studio, 352 W. 12th, at 1:30 pm. Costs $6. For information and registration, call 686-9342.

Radio

Special Jewish Festivals—As Sweet As Honey on Songs of Work, Struggle, and Change at 7:30 p.m. on KLCC 89.7 FM. Eugene producer Marcia Mint Danab captures the rich folklore of the Jewish New Year season in this sound collage documentary.

Fairs/Festivals

ASUO Street Fair runs today and tomorrow on 13th and the U of O campus from 10:00 am to sundown. Arts and crafts and much more. Free.

Autumn Equinox Service & Celebration at the Unitarian Church, 477 E. 40th, will begin at 7 pm. The celebration will feature piano composition by Michael Harrison, dance performance by Joint Forces dancers Karen Nelson and Alito Alessi, service by Nancy Clark and Norma Cordell, and astrology by Rainbow Jackson. Sponsored by the Eugene Center for the Healing Arts. The service will end with a group meditation. For more information, call Norma at 344-0178.

Concert Music

Art Coutere plays folk music on the mall at noon today. Part of the Summer Showcase on the Mall series.

Peter, Paul and Mary in Portland tonight at 8 pm in Civic Auditorium. Call Music Bulletin at 485-1411 for details.

Welcome to WHAT'S HAPPENING, Eugene and Springfield's new weekly guide to events and entertainment. Inside this and future issues you'll find the Music Bulletin, a comprehensive calendar of live music happenings around town. You'll also find At the Movies, gallery listings, announcements, running and cultural events—anything and everything people around here do. Look for your FREE copy of WHAT'S HAPPENING each Thursday. You'll find it where you shop and dine. Drop by at the Eugene and Springfield Public Libraries, in the 5th St. Public Market district, and on campus.

We know there are many things happening here in Lane County. We hope residents and visitors alike will find our FREE guide to events and entertainment, art and activities, meetings, etc. a useful and enjoyable publication. Help us publicize your event or activity. Fill out the calendar form you'll find in this paper, and drop it at one of the several locations listed at the bottom of the form. Get your calendar listings in early. You can also mail completed forms to WHAT'S HAPPENING, P.O. Box 259, Eugene, OR 97440.

We welcome your comments and suggestions as well. We know that each of you is what makes it all happen.

Ospreys and their nest, 15 miles east of Eugene. Ospreys feed primarily on fish and are occasionally known as fish hawks.
Photo by Michael Williams.

List your event FREE ... page 7