

Theatre

"Diamond Studs," Oregon Repertory Theater's country western musical life of Jesse James, continues tonight at 8 pm at 222 E. Broadway. Tickets are $4.50-$8.00 reserved seats; box office open from noon to 5 pm.

"Deathtrap" is Very Little Theatre's show opening tonight. Curtain time is 8:15 and cost is $4. Go by the box office, 2350 Hilyard, between 2:00-5:30 or 2:00-8:30 on show days. VLT offers a half-price senior discount.

Art

Eugene artist Kathy Caprario's watercolors and pastels are on display at the Excelsior Cafe, 754 E 13th, until Sept. 30.

Faye Nakamura displays her hand-built ceramics and paintings at Maude Kerns Art Center, 1910 E 15th, through October 2. Book and Tea, 1646 E. 19th, sponsors the exhibit.

Video and sound installation in the main gallery at Artist's Union, 985 Willamette, features artists Steven Oshatz, Arlie Connor, and Ed Melnick. Tues-Sat 12 noon to 5 pm and by appointment. Call 345-2101.

Etc.

"Wheels Day" Cycle Tune-up for new students at the University from 9 am to 4 pm, features free tune-up service and repair advice. Sign up at the new student's information table in the EMU.

Bookmobile will be at Churchill Estates, 1919 Bailey Hill Road from 1:15 to 2 pm and at Valley West Center from 3:30 to 5 pm today.

3rd Annual Data Processing Management Association Computer and Office Products Show from 11 am to 6 pm at the Lane County Convention Center at the Fairgrounds. Free. Low cost seminars are available also.

Friday 24

Speakers

Portland Oregon Friends of Jung presents James Soliday at the Sellwood United Methodist Church, 1422 S.E. Tacoma, at 7:30 pm. Soliday will give a presentation of The Christian Problem—dealing with one-sidedness and the dilemmas presented when we make this kind of identification. Call Portland 1-635-3905 for more information.

Radio

Live Broadcast of the EPAC Opening exclusively on KWAX 91.1 FM. Program begins with a pre-show history of the Performing Arts Center: EPAC—How Did It Happen? at 8 pm followed at 8:30 by the live performance onstage. Hosts Nancie Fadeley and Tom Dahlstrom will be working with Oregon Public Broadcasting to bring you this live coverage.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

a weekly publication of Energy Futures, Inc.
P.O. Box 259
Eugene, OR 97440

Staff:
Elisabeth Lyman
Lucia McKelvey
Bill Snyder
Sonja Ungemach
Lois Wadsworth

For information about advertising, call
343-9372 or 484-0519

Announcements

Oregon Zip Code Guide ($2.50) lists multiple-zip-code cities in Oregon and Vancouver, Washington, by street as well as an alphabetical list of all single-zip-code towns. You can also get a Zip Code Guide for just Eugene-Springfield by street for $1.25. Published by N.W. Energy Forum, a local Eugene firm. Order by phone for convenience: 686-0812.

Work Your Buns Off is a high energy aerobics exercise class (for people who aren't afraid to sweat) which meets every Tuesday and Thursday, 5:30-6:30 and on Saturdays from 10:00-11:00 am. The first class is free. Meets at the WOW Hall, 8th & Lincoln. Drop-ins are welcome. Call Robin at 343-0000 for more information.

Springfield Residents: Money is available for home repair (up to $1250), for home rehabilitation (loan up to $10,000 at 7% interest), and home security (dead-bolt locks, home security check). Call City of Springfield for information, 726-3700.

New Eugene Bikeways Map is based on the 1980 updated street map, printed on water- and tear-resistant paper and is color-coded. Useful information about hills, travel times, safe riding and cycling equipment is included. Available for $1.50 at Eugene City Hall, City Hall II, Community Centers, local bike and book stores.

Eugene-Florence bus service provided by Oregon Coast lines costs $10 round trip, and you can take your bike with you. Schedule available at ticket agents: Atrium Shoe Repair, 99 W 10th, 345-3011, or Hiatt's Flowers, 1912 Highway 126, Florence, 1-997-8685.

Gleaners & Gatherers will pick up your excess garden foods. They need volunteers, clothing, canning jars, and money. They help thousands of low-income seniors and their families throughout the country. Contact Gleaners & Gatherers at 484-5309 or Save Our Seniors at 726-4012.

Garbagios Cooperative provides garbage collection and recycling service. Call 726-5175, Mon-Thurs, 11:00-4:00. Call this number or 683-5054 for more information.

White Bird Clinic offers free 24-hour Hotline and Crisis Services, low-cost medical and legal clinics by appointment from 1-5 pm Mon-Fri, and low-cost counseling, 341 E 12th. Call 342-8255.

Film

"King of Hearts" starts the new school year at the U of O. Shows at 7 & 9; 150 Geology; costs $1.50.

McKenzie River Gathering, a progressive social change foundation, is seeking a full-time staff person for statewide fund raising, public relations, and office work. Need to have 2 years experience in working with social change groups and fund-raising. Must have good communication and office skills and an ability to work with people from diverse economic, racial and social backgrounds. Position starts in October; salary's $14,000/year plus fringe. Send 3 copies of your resume to McKenzie River Gathering, 454 Willamette, Eugene, OR 97401 and 3 copies to McKenzie River Gathering, P.O. Box 12405, Portland, OR 97212. Must be post-marked by October 1, 1982.

Sorry, What's Happening cannot handle your classifieds. Another local weekly, the Weekly Calendar, lists classifieds. Call Heidi at 344-1291 or write to P.O. Box 11512, Eugene, OR 97440.

Nursery Pre-School & Day Care Center, at 1875 Jefferson Ave., is licensed for 5 children, ages 2 to 9. Hours 7 am-6 pm. Healthy vegetarian meals and snacks are provided at no extra cost. Call Misha Seymour for information, 345-9230.

Insight Body Works School of Massage offers personal instruction, group growth learning, and preparedness for State Board Exam. Robin Barzilay, Instructor and Director. Free catalogue of courses available. Call 343-0000 for more information.

Re-cycling Switchboard is in Portland at 1-229-5555 and is the information office of the Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) established by the State Legislature in 1973. It provides consultation on recycling projects and public education. Ask for the free "Guide to Running a Recycling Project" and other publications.

Free carpool permit for parking downtown will be issued to those who share a ride to work at least 4 days a week. There are carpool contracts and carpool match applications available at the Paratransit Office, City of Eugene, 990 Oak Street or call 687-5297. There are also 20 Park and Ride locations throughout the city. Ask for information about them.

Parents Without Partners meets every Thursday at 7 pm at Westminster Church, 777 Coburg Road in Eugene. Call 747-2623, Jean Haley, for more information. Free.

Fairs/Festivals

ASUO Street Fair continues; see Thursday, Sept. 23 listing.

Circus Vargas performs tonight at 8 pm, Valley River Center.

SAHALIE Natural Foods

Mushrooms

$1.29/pound

13th & Patterson 484-6460
Weekdays 9-9, Sat-Sun 10-9

New and Used Bicycles

AUSTRO-DAIMLER BICYCLES

Willamette Valley
Cycle Works

663 E. Thirteenth Eugene, Oregon 97401-343-7086

Dance Music

Coburg Hunter's Benefit Ball for area artist Kathy Clay will be held tonight at the Coburg Fire Hall from 8 pm to midnight. The Mainstream Band will perform. Costs $2; proceeds go to help make it possible for Kathy to go to the Soviet Union for treatment of a rare eye disease. Call Kathy Snelling at 683-3358 if you need more information.

"Tattoo" and Mithrandir play tonight at the WOW Hall, 8th and Lincoln, beginning at 9:30 pm. Wheelchair access. Adult refreshments with ID. Costs $3. All ages are welcome.

Big Band Dance, a 17-piece band for ballroom dancing, tonight at Westmoreland Community Center, 1545 W. 22nd Ave., from 9 pm to midnight. Mary Margolis will lead the Eugene Stage Band. Cost is $2 per person. Call the Center at 687-5316 for more info.

"The Zeros," a newly formed punk group, debuts at 1800 Longview Street at 9 pm. Free. Be prepared to rock. Call Joseph Gonyea at 484-6793 for more information.

Dance to JAH music at Blair Island with "Illumination" at 10:30 tonight. Third and Blair; costs $1.50.

ContraDance—New England style—features live music by Oregon Country Dance Orchestra at the Friend's Meeting Hall, 23rd and Onyx, beginning at 8 pm. Beginners are welcome; all dances are taught, and there will be several callers. $2. Sponsored by the Eugene Folklore Society; call Kirk McCall at 344-7839 for more information.

Workshops

A 10-week workshop in Improvisation and Songwriting is designed to help develop ability to write songs and improvise in the folk, jazz, and rock idioms. Register by today for class beginning—Wednesday, Sept. 29; see that listing for details.

Oslund and Company and Joint Forces offer modern dance and contact improvisation classes today and tomorrow at the Community Center for the Performing Arts, 291 West 8th. Call Mary Oslund at 342-4457 or Karen Nelson at 342-3273 for details.

Rock, jazz, blues and contemporary acoustic guitar class registration at Mac Court today for classes beginning Sept. 27; see listings for details.

Video

Winds of Change, Cable 11: U of O Survival Center on wilderness preservation and hydroelectric projects. 7 pm. This is a public access community television production.

Etc.

Summer Showcase on the Mall presents Tom Tomashek and Crazy Ol' Professor clowning, juggling and making music at noon.

Bookmobile will be at Wesley Methodist Church, 1385 Oakway Road, from 2:15 to 5:30 pm today.

7th Annual Garage Sale at Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry, from 9 am to 5 pm benefits the League of Women Voters. A raffle will be held.

ONSEN

For healthful relaxation . . .

Eugene's newly established spa rental facility. Enjoy your own hot tub in our private open-air rooms.

Hourly reservations
daily noon—1 a.m.

1883 Garden Ave. • 345-9048
2 blocks from U of O campus