

Shopping Resale— Vintage and Contemporary

There are quite a few quality used clothing stores in Eugene—all quite different. Below is a run-down of a few.

Alpha Consignment, the only used clothing store on the westside, has a good selection of contemporary clothes for the whole family—and the prices are good. The store is decorated with inexpensive plants, and you can also find some nice low-priced jewelry. Varsie gives 50% on consignments and buys new and used. Located at 775 Monroe Street.

Mariah's is a lovely store and center for infants, toddlers and young children. It feels like a center because children play happily on the carpet. Mariah (newly born) sleeps peacefully in one of the cribs, and parents visit and exchange information while looking through the excellent selection of natural fibre clothing, blankets, cribs, swings, chairs, shoes and lots more for very low prices. Up to size 6 there is a large selection, up to size 12 there are fewer clothes but they are of excellent quality. There are some new items; for example, tie-dyed undershirts and little dresses. Visit Mariah's and experience an expansive store—in terms of its selection and consciousness. No consignment—buy and sell only. Located at 468 Willamette.

Old Friends sells high quality, fashionable vintage and used clothing; a good selection for men as well as women. Here you can find wool jackets, sweaters, old fashioned blouses, skirts, a dress for the opera, and much more. Four rooms full of treats—and when Steve returns from his tour of Mexico he'll bear with him handwoven, ethnic clothing and some folk and Indian art for the store. Visiting this store is a fun experience. Consignment—buy and sell only. Located at 128-A Alder (off East 11th).

Street Merchant is a tiny two-room shop crammed full of surprises. Kay says she'll rent anything to the right person. She has authentic costumes (including a Marilyn Monroe dress), punk, lots of great hats, some jewelry, nice jackets and she "wants more—anything from a stuffed armadillo to a flaming red satin corset." (Kay is also looking for a ragtime piano player.) No consignment—buy or trade. Located in the courtyard in back of Poppi's (675 E. 13th St.).

Puttin' On The Ritz has an elegant selection of vintage clothes for men and women. Just recently they've brought out many excellent warm suits, and suit jackets for women—all very classy and reasonably priced. They regularly carry lovely slips, nightgowns, robes, and a great selection of hats and shoes. Located at 1639 East 19th Street.

... Tuesday

Dance Music

Golden Age Dance for seniors at Westmoreland Community Center, 1545 W 22nd, begins at 6:30 pm. Donations of 50-75¢ accepted. Call 687-5316 for more info.

Workshop

Personal Growth/Therapy Group for Men begins a 10-week session at the Eugene Center for the Healing Arts, 1094 Monroe, from 7:30-9:30 pm and costs $10 a session. Program is set up to help participants become more aware of needs and emotions and through mutual support create positive changes. Pre-register, please; call 344-0178.

The Goddess in Astrology, one-evening session will focus on goddesses of different cultures and pre-patriarchal mythologies. At 7 pm at the Eugene Center for the Healing Arts, 1094 Monroe, the class costs $4-$7 and is taught by Rainbow Jackson; 344-0178.

Clairvoyant Training with Leah Maggie Garfield is being taught tonight, but advance registration is required. Fee is $75. To reserve a space, call 689-3105.

Sports/Recreation

Pre-trip for Alsea Falls Overnight Bike Ride on Saturday & Sunday the 16th & 17th meets today at Amazon Center at 7 pm. Call Toni at 683-4959 or Richard at 485-4109 for more information.

Art

Open drawing sessions start in Room 275, Lawrence Hall, U of O from 6:30-9:30. Model's repertoire of poses range from 30 seconds to 20 minutes.

Meetings

Video showing of the Canadian documentary "Spooks, Cowboys, Gooks & Grunts" is scheduled for 7:30 pm in EMU Forum Room at the U of O. CORD sponsors, and will also discuss what's happening now with draft registration and what you can do. 485-4611 for more information.

2nd Annual World Food Day is celebrated with a soup supper and public forum at the First Methodist Church, 14th & Olive, from 5:30-8 pm, donations accepted. Leaders in politics, labor, church, and low income issues will share soup and concerns with each other. Call Hunger Action Coalition, 683-6403, mornings, for more information.

Fat Is a Feminist Issue support group meets; see Thursday's listing.

Oregon Committee for the Humanities presents

Change The Way It Is!

Celebrating the lives of Appalachian women...

FREE PERFORMANCE

SORENG THEATRE

And Artists' Reception

Hull Center for the Performing Arts

OCTOBER 24 / 2 P.M.

Pick up your FREE TICKETS beginning Monday, Oct. 11 from one of the following local arts supporters:

Northwest Wine & Cheese 5th St. Public Market 343-0536	The Brass Ball 453 Willamette (next to train depot) 342-2298	Down to Earth 50 E. 11th 344-8357 740 E. 24th 345-7954	Rosewaters Deli 76 W. Broadway (City Center Mall) 485-4342	Onsen Spa 1883 Garden Ave. (between Franklin & the Willamette) 345-9048	Eugene Copy Center 410 E. 11th 344-4062	Metropoli Cafe 888 Pearl (at Broadway) 343-3005
--	---	--	---	--	---	--

Actress Jane Van Boskirk and musician Linda Danielson explore the lives of modern mountain women. Based on the book HILLBILLY WOMEN, by Kathy Kahn; adapted and directed by Randi Douglas-Young.

Performance will be signed for the deal.

Sponsored by: Lane Regional Arts Council, Hull Center for the Performing Arts, What's Happening, and the above listed business sponsors. Made possible in part by a grant from the Oregon Committee for the Humanities, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Meetings

Meeting to plan and work on speakers, films, and fundraising for Medical Aid for El Salvador, and to discuss current events in Central America meets at 364 River Road at 7:30 p.m. 688-6635 or 485-1755 for more information.

Students for a Nuclear Free Future invites all students interested in working for peace and nuclear arms control to meet at 111 EMU at 5 pm today, or call SNUFF, 485-9556.

Winner's Circle Breakfast Club meets every Thursday morning at the Eugene Hilton for $6.50 breakfast, entertainment, and a motivating speaker. Speakers today are Richard Brinkman and Rickie Kirschner. To make reservations for the 7-8:15 am meeting, call 342-5400.

Client's Council general meeting will discuss advocacy plans and the Jobs Program at 935 W 5th Ave from 7-9 pm. Childcare, travel expenses provided for low income people. Refreshments.

Volunteers Orientation Meeting for the Eugene Council for Human Rights in Latin America will be at 1236 Kincaid at 7:30 pm. The Council organizes educational and cultural events; call 484-5867 for more information.

Eugene Guitar Association's first public meeting for players of all styles and levels gets under way at 7:30 at Room 198, U of O Beall Hall. There will be a performance as well as discussion of future events. Peter Thomas, 343-5070, has more information.

Children

Stories for ages 4 to 6 at 11 am and 3 pm at the Springfield Public Library are free.

TOM NOEL'S

EUROPEAN SPECIALTIES

Repair and Maintenance of European Automobiles

The Guild of Master Technicians

CERTIFIED MEMBER

12th & Main
726-1808

Springfield
JAGUAR

Wednesday

13

Speakers

Public Participation in Regional Energy Planning will be discussed by Congressman Jim Weaver in the U of O Gerlinger Lounge at 12:30 pm, sponsored by the U of O Solar Energy Center and WIVSEA.

Open
7 days

kinko's copies

4¢

self service copies

Quality Copies • Kodak 150
Resumes • Thesis • Reduction
Custom Paper • Binding • Lamination

860 E. 13th Ave.
344-7894