

October 14 - October 15, 1982

What's Happening

This Week in Eugene & Springfield

A Weekly Guide to Events and Entertainment

Vol. 1 No. 5 Oct. 14, 1982 Published Every Thursday

Thursday
14

Speakers

Martha Keys, a former congresswoman from Kansas, will speak on "Women and the Political Process" at 3 pm in Erb Memorial Union Forum Room. State Rep. Margie Hendriksen and Oregon Secretary of State Norma Paulus will join in a panel discussion. Free.

Theatre

A Galway Girl by Geraldine Aron is a one-act play offered at Aunt Lucy Devine's Loft, 1340 Alder St., at 8 pm. Cost is $2.50.

A Streetcar Named Desire plays at ORT, 222 E Broadway, at 8 pm. Ticket prices range from $5.50-$8.00, all seats are reserved. Call 485-1946 for details.

Etc.

Amity Foundation Fundraiser gets under way at 4:30 at the Keystone Cafe, 395 W 5th, and features a beer garden, music, and dinner, $4-$6, starting at 5:30.

Patience & Sarah

Jan Eliot

Workshops

Salvadoran Refugees: U.S. Immigration Policy is the focus of a panel discussion with Isabel Cardenas and Dr. Orlando Lopez at the Latin American Cultural Center, 1236 Kincaid, at 7:30 pm. $1.50 donation will be asked at the door. Call 484-5867 for more information.

Northwest Regional Energy Symposium today and tomorrow focuses on energy resources of the Northwest, today featuring speakers Mark Reis, Lloyd Marbet, Dan Goldrich, and Mike Grainey. EMU Room 167 from 7-10 pm. Call Survival Center, 686-4356 for details.

Concert Music

Eugene Symphony Orchestra with guest pianist Yefim Bronfman play Brahms, Beethoven, and Bartok at 8:30 pm at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts. For ticket info, call the Orchestra box office at 687-0020.

Meetings

Toastmasters meet at the Springfield Wild Plum Restaurant from 6:45-8:15 am. Call 726-0889 for more information.

Baha'i Fireside, an informal discussion about the Baha'i Faith with a question and answer session, meets at 2259 Corinthian Court at 7:30 pm. Refreshments are provided. 342-7864 for more information.

Film

Rafting in Nepal is a slide presentation at the EMU Ballroom at 7 pm which is offered free to the public. 686-4362 has more information.

Forests and Forestry on Guam is a slide show sponsored by OSU Extension Service as one of a regular series on international forestry. Shows at 7 pm at 950 W 13th, 687-4243. Free.

Children

Ages 7-12 Aikido Class focuses on a peaceful approach to martial arts. Call Chuck Hawk at 343-0219 for more information.

Radio

Premiere of Taylor Made Piano, a Jazz History with Dr. Billy Taylor, at 1 pm on KLCC 89.7 FM, today explains what jazz is and why it is considered America's classical music.

Friday
15

Theatre

Tango, Polish playwright Slawomir Mrozek's black comedy, opens at 8 pm at UO Robinson Theatre. Reserved seat tickets are $5 general public, $3.25 for UO students and senior citizens, and $4 other students. Noon-4 call the box office at 686-4191.

Red Skelton performs at the Silva Concert Hall at the Hult Center at 8 pm.

Streetcar Named Desire plays at Oregon Repertory Theatre at 8 pm. See Thursday's listing.

A Galway Girl repeats; see Thursday's listing.

Radio

Ray Charles—Genius+Soul—Jazz will be featured at 8:30 pm on Straight Ahead, KWAX 91.1 FM, preceded by 2 full hours of jazz.

Film

Nashville is shown at 7 and 9 pm at 177 Lawrence on UO campus for $1.50; sponsored by YWCA.

Personal Best is sponsored by the Sufi Circle at 7 and 9:45 in 150 Geology. $1.50 adults, children 2-12 $1.

Boogie Music

James Thornbury Band with Sunnyland Man plays at the WOW Hall, beginning at 9:30 pm. 8th and Lincoln, $2.50.

Sports/Recreation

Basketball: Portland Trailblazers vs. Golden State Warriors exhibition game of the season at MacArthur Court at 8 pm. Tickets cost $5, $6, $8; call 686-4461.

South Eugene meets Sheldon in football game starting at 8:15 at South; adult tickets $3.50, students $1.50 with ID.

Professional Wrestling at Lane County Fairgrounds Expo Hall #6 begins at 8 pm. Call 345-9717 for ticket info.

Speakers

Antoine Predock, internationally known architect from Albuquerque, New Mexico, speaks on "Recent Work in Two New Mexicos" at 4:30 pm at Room 177, Lawrence Hall, U of O. Predock's work features integration of regional characteristics and innovative energy considerations.

Conifer Ecology lecture by Art McKee is sponsored by Eugene Natural History Society. Call 686-3024 for lecture time and place.

Central American refugees and the Simpson-Mazzoli immigration bill are the subjects of a panel discussion featuring speakers from Amparo, a Seattle legal aid group for immigrants and refugees. Amazon Village Community Center at 2700 Hilyard is the location of the 7:30-9 pm event. $1 donation requested. 485-1755 for more information; 344-8030 childcare information.

Open Forum between audience and guests Mo Udall and Ted Kulongoski at the EMU Forum Room from 9:30-10:30 am on the U of O campus. Free.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16 AT 10:30 A.M.
2 miles & 6.2 miles
• T-SHIRTS • BEER
• MUSIC • PRIZES

Starts and ends at BJ Kelly's.
 Registration $6.00, including morning of race.
Sign up now at—
KLCC
 4000 E. 30th Ave., Lane Community College

FEETS NIKE EUGENE
 5th St. Public Market Atrium, 10th & Olive