

October 21 - October 28, 1982

What's Happening

This Week in Eugene & Springfield
A Weekly Guide to Events and Entertainment

Vol. I No. 6 Oct. 21, 1982

Published Every Thursday

Thursday 21

Art

Art Exhibit from Chile: Victor Paz, a collection of his watercolor and oil paintings, are on display in EMU Room 167 through Oct. 23, from 11-5 daily. Free.

Children

Halloween with Morris and Boris and The Fifth Witch puppet shows for all ages at 10:30 am and 3:30 pm at Eugene Public Library. Free. Lecture room upstairs.

Let's Make a Mask workshop for grades 1-6 to be held Saturday. Register today at Amazon Community Center, 2700 Hilyard, 687-5373.

Theatre

Tango by Slawomir Mrozek presented by University Theatre, U of O, begins at 8 pm in Robinson Theatre on campus. $5 general public, $3.25 UO students and senior citizens, and $4 other students.

A Galway Girl by Geraldine Aron plays at Aunt Lucy Devine's Loft, 1340 Alder, 687-0962, at 8 pm. Costs $2.50.

A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams is presented by Oregon Repertory Theatre at 222 East Broadway at 8 pm. Tickets range from $5.50-$8.00, and all seats are reserved. Call the box office at 485-1946.

Change the Way It Is!

On Monday morning, Oct. 11, 500 free tickets to Change the Way It Is! became available to Eugene/Springfield residents. By Monday noon, they were all gone. This overwhelming response is not surprising—the performance promises to be outstanding, combining fine talent with topical and moving material.

Change is a stage documentary about the lives of several Appalachian women, and their bout with hard times. Eugene actress Jane Van Boskirk and Eugene musician Linda Danielson have already toured this show and won raving reviews statewide.

For those of you who missed out on the tickets, you might still be able to get a seat. If there are empty seats at certain times, people will be admitted to fill the hall. So, if you haven't got a ticket, show up and be prepared to wait in line. Ticket holders are asked to arrive 15 minutes early to claim their seats.

The performance starts at 2 pm, October 21, at the Soreng Theatre, Hult Center for the Performing Arts.

This free performance was made possible in part by a grant from the Oregon Committee for the Humanities. Local support was provided by the Lane Regional Arts Council, Hult Center, What's Happening, and by the following local arts supporters:

Eugene Copy Center / Northwest Wine & Cheese
Onsen / Brass Rail / Metropal Cafe
Down to Earth / Rosewaters Deli

Meetings

Cable Access Corporation meets at the Public Access Studio at 326 W 12th in a board meeting to determine program production specifics at 3:30 pm. Interested public may attend.

Orientation and general meeting of Parents Without Partners at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 777 Coburg Road. Orientation at 7 pm; general meeting at 8 pm discusses "Just in Case You Ever Grow Old." No cost to prospective members. 342-8442 for information.

Metropolitan Area Cable Television Commission meets at 11:30 in Springfield City Hall, 225 North A, Conference Room 2. Business includes service contract agreement with the Cable Access Corporation. Public meeting.

Etc.

Country Dance Weekend at Suttle Lake near Sisters costs $50-65. For more information, call 345-2561.

Benefit Fashion Show at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts, Soreng Theatre, 687-5000, costs $10 and is presented by Kaufman's.

Bake Sale for Big Creek in front of the University Book Store all day.

Maude Kerns Art Center Benefit Auction at the Eugene Hilton begins at 7:30 pm and is free; items to be auctioned donated by community artists and Lane County businesses. Call Leslie Copeland at 345-1571 for more information.

Jazzercise Benefit for Maude Kerns Art Center presents 2 workshops instructed by Louis McKay at Gerlinger Annex, UO, from 6-7:30 and from 8-9:30 pm.

Speakers

Judith Cushman is speaking at UO School of Journalism Library in Allen Hall at 3:30 and at 5:30 at Eugene Hilton Hotel on "How to Get a Job in Public Relations." U of O free, Hilton $2.

Very Venerable Kalu Rinpoche will be speaking on "Love and Compassion" at 7 pm in Gerlinger Hall, U of O. $6 tickets must be purchased in advance by calling 484-7064. Kalu Rinpoche is a senior lama of Tibetan Buddhism. Sponsored by Eugene Center for Healing Arts and Kagyu Suka Chuling.

Stanley Greenfield, UO English professor, will lecture on "Beowulf: Monsters and Hero" at 8 pm at the Eugene Conference Center, 7th and Oak. Free to the public. For more information, call 686-4821.

Sports/Recreation

Ski Fitness Class: prepare for the skiing season through a program of stretching, balance, cardiovascular reaction time, agility, strength and power exercises. Taught by former trainer for US ski teams, Jamie Gardenzwartz, 686-4105. Class meets at 181 Esslinger, UO, from 7-8 pm through Nov. 23 and costs $20.

Workshops

Astrological Forecasting Techniques studies transits, secondary progressions, solar arc, solar and lunar returns as methods. Need some basic astrological knowledge. Johanna Koch, 342-7272, teaches at 1210 Pearl, 7:30-9:30 pm. $46 for 8-week course; the class will be held open until Thursday, Oct. 28.

Beginning Astrology Class runs for 12 weeks at Peralandra, 790 E 11th, from 7-9 and costs $5 a class. Call Susan Pressman for registration information, 342-8029.

Boogie Music

James Thornbury Band gets it on at Ken's Keg, Highway 34, in Lebanon, tonight through Saturday night from 9:30-1:30 am. Call 343-0083 for more information.

Radio

Taylor Made Piano, a history of jazz with Dr. Billy Taylor, covers "From Africa to Ragtime" at 1 pm on KLCC 89.7 FM.

The Chicago Symphony plays Haydn's Lord Nelson Mass and Stravinsky's Rites of Spring at 8 pm on KWAX 91.1 FM.

Gina and Beren. North Bank Bicycle Path, east of Alton Baker Park. Photograph by Michael Williams. Image of Life Photography, 484-0024.

Film

No Deposit—No Return, a Walt Disney movie, plays at 7 pm at Ida Patterson School, 1510 W 15th to benefit Eugene Latch Key, 687-3542, $1 adults, 50¢ children.

Dance Music

Arousing Spirit plays hot reggae at the Community Center for the Performing Arts, the WOW Hall, 8th & Lincoln, at 9 pm, $2.50.

Friday 22

Concert Music

Sun Ra and his 16 piece Omniverse Jet Set Arkestra perform at 7:30 pm at Soreng Theatre, the Hult Center. Tickets are $10.50, $9.50, and $8.50, and are available at Earth River, Everybody's EMU, Play It Again on campus, and Hult Box Office, 687-5000.

Children

Halloween puppet shows at 10:30 and 3:30 at Eugene Public Library are free. See Thursday's listings.

Story time for children ages 3-5 at the Eugene Public Library at 10 and 10:30 am. Pre-register, please. Free.

Fairs/Festivals

West Wind Travelin' Vaudeville and Mithrandir perform at the WOW Hall, 8th & Lincoln; show begins at 7 pm and costs $3 for general admission, $2 for under 10 and over 60. Show includes Tom Noddy (Bubble Music), Moz Wright (sword swallower), Liv the Piper, Polaris the Magician, and Artis the Spoonman.

Family Carnival at First United Methodist Church, 1376 Olive St (behind the Eugene Public Library), runs from 6:30-11 pm, and costs 20¢-50¢ per activity. Activities include a variety of arcade games, bingo, cartoons and movies, a magic show, ventriloquist, mime, music and more.

Scandia Festival at the Silva Theatre, Hult Center, performs at 8 pm. Tickets cost between $12.50-$6.50. Call 1-800-452-3616 for more information about the show.

Ceramic Festival of Holidays, "Witches' Brew," is sponsored by Beaver State Ceramic Association, 689-1093, and runs through Sunday. Adults $1.25, under 12, free. Open from 5-11 pm today and 10 am - 5 pm Saturday and Sunday.

Irish Celebration: Dance to the best Irish music with members of Apples in Winter, Just Friends, and O'Caplan's Consort at the UO Faculty Club, 13th & University, at 8 pm. $3 donation requested. Sponsored by Students for Kulongoski, Utopian Solutions, 345-8427.