

★ ★ ★ November 11 - November 18, 1982 ★ ★ ★

What's Happening

This Week in Eugene & Springfield
A Weekly Guide to Events and Entertainment

Vol. I No. 9 Nov. 11, 1982

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Published Every Thursday

Thursday 11

Workshops

The Way of the Dreamer: an 8-week group focusing on remembering and recording dreams, Gestalt Dreamwork, Senoi Dreamwork, dreams and relationships, healing the body through dreams, begins tonight at 7 pm, 605 W 28th, and costs $55. Class is taught by Gary Reiss, MSW. Call 683-4483 for more information.

Sew a reversible vest in a day at Jean's Knitting Center, 2475 Hilliard, from 10-4. Requires sewing machine, $15, materials. Call 343-9916 to pre-register.

Nuclear War: What's In It For You? continues today at the University of Oregon. Today's symposium includes films "No First Use" and "No Frames, No Boundaries" in continuous alternation from noon-4 pm in 167 EMU; "Solutions to the Nuclear Arms Race: The November 11 Convocation" presents a videotape of Admiral Noel Gayler's speech from the Physicians for Social Responsibility conference at 4 pm in 123 Science I; at 177 Lawrence, "Hearts and Minds," an award-winning documentary on the Vietnam War, will be shown free at 7 pm and 9 pm.

Radio

Karen Silkwood Remembered is a special presented by Will Doolittle on Songs of Work, Struggle and Change at 8:30 pm, a new time, on KLCC, 89.7 FM.

Taylor Made Piano, a jazz history hosted by Dr. Billy Taylor, features "Swing" at 1 pm on KLCC. This program explores the dominant jazz style of the 1930's. Recordings by Duke Ellington, Mary Lou Williams, Teddy Wilson and others.

Beethoven Violin Sonatas are the Featured Works on KWAX 91.1 FM at 10 am; at noon, Ravel's Scherzade.

A Canticle for Leibowitz, Walter M. Miller's 1959 science fiction classic, debuts in a 15-part NPR Playhouse series at 7:30 pm on KLCC 89.7 FM. Part 1 of this science-fiction saga of the aftermath of a nuclear holocaust.

Theatre

Oh, What a Lovely War! continues at University Arena Theatre at 8 pm. Cost is $5 general public, $3.25 UO students and senior citizens, and $4 other students.

God's Favorite opens at Lane Community College Performing Arts Theatre at 8 pm. Reserved tickets cost $4.50. Call LCC 726-2209 for more information.

Etc.

Hard Times Lunches offered at 1236 Kincaid by the Eugene Council for Human Rights in Latin America, $1.50.

Art

Opening reception for works by Valley Calligraphy Guild at the Springfield Public Library, 225 N. 5th at 6 pm. The works will be on display through the winter.

Meetings

Baha'i Fireside meets at 2259 Corinthian Court at 7:30 pm for an informal discussion and question and answer session about the Baha'i Faith. Refreshments are provided. Call 484-9565 for more information.

Song Circle meets at 7:45 at 1345 High St. #4 and focuses on themes of fall, harvest, and thanksgiving. Call 683-3261 for more information.

Concert Music

Violin virtuoso Elmar Oliveira presents with the Eugene Symphony Orchestra an all-Russian program featuring works by Stravinsky, Mussorgsky, and Tchaikovsky at the Silva Concert Hall, Hult Center for the Performing Arts, at 8:30 pm. Tickets cost between $6.75-$18.75.

Student artists will perform a variety of numbers in a Musical Smorgasbord concert at 12:30 pm in Room 198 at the U of O School of Music. Free.

Bryan Bowers, virtuoso autoharplist, singer, and storyteller, returns to Eugene at the WOW Hall, 8th and Lincoln, for a 9 pm show. $5.

Speakers

Joseph Short of Boston, executive director of Oxfam America, will talk about world hunger in EMU Room 167 at the University of Oregon at 7 pm. The public may attend a potluck dinner at 5 pm at the Kolonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St., to meet Short before the lecture.

Film

Hearts and Minds, award-winning documentary, presented by Coalition Opposing Registration and the Draft as a part of this nation's memorial to the victims of the American war in Viet Nam, shows at St. Alice Church, 15th and G St., Springfield at 3 pm, and at University of Oregon at 7 and 9 pm, 177 Lawrence Hall. Both showings are free.

Children

The youth game room at Amazon Community Center will be open on Veterans Day, from 1-5 pm. Students in grades 1-12 are welcome to play pool, foosball, ping-pong, and listen to music. For more information, call Kim at 687-5373.

Mystery Trip for grades 1-6 sponsored by Petersen Barn Community Center, 870 Berntzen Road, costs $7.25 and leaves the center at 9 am and returns at 5 pm. There is no school for Bethel area students on this day, so bring a sack lunch, be prepared for rain, and come on a mystery trip. Destination will be shared with parents. Call 689-1446 for details.

Friday 12

Speakers

Dr. June Singer will speak on "The Many Levels of Man/Woman Relationships" at 8 pm in the EMU Ballroom. Costs $1 students, $2 general public. Sponsored by the EMU Cultural Forum, 686-4373.

Etc.

An Elegant Evening Goes to the Movies, a musical revue plus a 6-course dinner including wine at the Treehouse, 1769 Franklin, costs $32.95 and begins at 7:30 pm.

Lion's Club Auction from 6 pm to midnight at the Lane County Convention Center Performance Hall, 796 W 13th, features both silent and oral auction, and is free.

Antique Show and Sale at the Fairgrounds Auditorium Building runs from 11 am to 9 pm, costs $1 to get in, 12 and under free.

Harpist, Harper, Melissa Morgan

Coming to Eugene this weekend is musician Melissa Morgan. Melissa is both a harper (performing on Irish and Paraguayan folk harps) and a harpist (concert pedal harp). Her repertoire includes a wide range of classical, folk, Irish and jazz compositions as well as some unique and exciting original works. Melissa began her study of the classical harp at the age of 8. While living in Guam, she taught music in the schools, published a book about teaching the harp, and began composing original music, influenced by the music of the East. Now living in San Diego, she teaches, performs, and tours. She has published two tapes of original music, "Gateways" and "Heart," and has made a record of traditional Irish music on the Kicking Mule label.

Melissa Morgan can be heard this Saturday, Nov. 13, on KLCC's Blackberry Jam, 89.7 FM, at 6 pm. She will also perform in concert on Sunday, Nov. 14, in Gerlinger Lounge on campus, at 7:30 pm.

These events are sponsored by the Eugene Folklore Society and the EMU Cultural Forum.

Meetings

Returned Peace Corps volunteers Spanish potluck at 2760 1/2 Potter from 6-9 pm.

The word crisis is written with two characters in Chinese. One symbol represents danger, the other stands for opportunity.

—Robert Cantor

Also inside:
At the Movies, Art Galleries ...