Eugene Symphonic Band— Classic and Contemporary Wind Music

On Monday, November 15, the Eugene Symphonic Band begins its season of concerts with a special performance in the Soreng Theatre at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts. This concert features Guest Conductor Frederick Fennell, one of the most provocative and influential conductors of our time. Dr. Fennell's remarkable career and warm, energetic personality reflect the highest standards in American professional performance. He has made numerous recordings of orchestral, wind ensemble, and band music, which are currently being re-released. He is well known for his affectionate regard for young musicians and his concern for the serious business of their training.

Following a long and distinguished career at Rochester's Eastman School of Music, where he founded the Eastman Wind Ensemble, Dr. Fennell served as Associate Music Director of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. In 1980, he became Conductor Emeritus at the University of Miami.

Dr. Fennell's appearance with the Eugene Symphonic Band will feature an historical perspective of Sousa marches. He will also conduct Pastorale by Clifton Williams, La Fantasia Boutique by Respighi, and Symphonic Movement by Nellybel. Eugene Symphonic Band Conductor Robert Wagner will conduct Prelude in the Dorian Mode by Cabzorn, An Original Suite by Gordon Jacob, and The Commando March by Samuel Barber.

Tickets are available at Wilson's Music House (345-5312) and at the Hult Center (687-5000). Admission is $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for students and seniors. The performance is at 8 pm.
