Announcements

The Oregon Arts Commission announces its 1983 Film and Video Production Grants Program. A total of $5,000 is available to recognize outstanding artists and to advance film and video as significant art forms. Projects should be completed by Dec. 1983. The juror is Sterling VanWagenen, Sundance Institute for Film and Video. Applications must be dated no later than Jan 15, 1983 and mailed to Oregon Arts Commission, 835 Summer St NE, Salem, OR 97301.

Please help clean up the bike path—the North Riverbank Trail between Autzen Bridge and the Springfield Sewer Plant, on Sat, Dec 4. It's too dangerous to wait! Bring a flat-nosed shovel, gloves and a friend—rain or shine. Start at 9:30 am. Call David at 726-5012 to know more.

A silent auction of more than 60 photographic prints is being held now through Dec 12 by the Photography at Oregon Gallery at the UO Museum of Art. Among those who donated works are Ansel Adams, Edna and Wynn Bullock, Brett Weston, Marsha Burns and Olivia Parker as well as Ted Orland, Rosanne Olson, Willie Osterman and Bernie Freemesser of Eugene. Proceeds from the auction will be used to bring noted photographers here for exhibits, lectures and workshops. The Gallery is open from noon-5 pm. Drop in and make a bid. 686-3027.

The following classes will be available at the UO in January: Piano classes for children, teenagers and adults beginning Jan 5.
