Christmas Services

Enjoy Christmas or Christmas eve at one of the many, many churches in town. For example, at the Unitarian Church, 477 E 40th, there will be a candle-light service at 6:30 pm which will be followed by a reception. The Christian Deaf Center, 2600 Wood St, Eugene, has a potluck today (Thursday). Take a hot dish and a dessert. The Episcopal Church of the Resurrection, 3925 Hilyard, has a Christmas eve children's service with communion at 7:30 pm; also midnight mass begins at 11:30 pm.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 166 E 13th, has a children's service, Dec 24, at 5:30 pm. A full-course Christmas dinner will be served at the Eugene Mission, 1542 W First Ave. A Christmas package will be given to each person. The Friendly St. Church of God, 2290 Friendly St., will present a nativity pageant today (the 23rd) from 7-9 pm with live animals and people depicting the story of Christmas.

Happy Holidays from the staff of What's Happening.

Christmas Gift

What's Happening is pleased to announce the receipt of a gift of $1500 from the Harrington Foundation of Ohio. The Trustees of the foundation make an effort to support organizations promoting the performing arts, ecology groups, and health projects.

The Board of Directors of Energy Futures, Inc. wishes to publicly thank the Harrington Foundation for this generous gift.
