The UO Library has a sheet music collection which began over 20 years ago and consists of 20,630 popular songs from the 1890's to the present. It includes Irving Berlin, John Philip Sousa, Cole Porter, Bob Dylan and John Lennon, among many others. Anyone may request to see it, most of which is arranged for voice or piano. They are indexed by cover artists, singers, films, operas, etc. For more information, call Christine Olsen at 686-3114.

The Kids on the Block is a troupe of disabled and non-disabled puppets which describe and discuss their disabilities with children in a puppet show format. The puppets have a range of disabilities which include Cerebral Palsy, Down's Syndrome, blind, hearing impaired, learning disabilities and a near-sighted puppet who just acquired eyeglasses. The script material allows the puppets to question one another about his/her disabilities and are designed to show differences of disabled persons, not defects.

To schedule "The Kids on the Block," call 746-1669. Please make the request 3 weeks prior to the desired performance time. There is no charge for performances scheduled within Willamalane Park District. Outside the Park District a $10 fee is charged for each showing.

Beginning this week, for-profit workshops and classes will no longer be listed here in Announcements. If you charge a fee for ongoing workshops or classes, you can list yourself in What's Happening Classifieds. See page 11.

Oregon is the first state in the nation to have a Tax Check-off for Oregon Art inaugurated by 1982 Legislature. You may check off money from your income tax refund as contributions to the Oregon Arts Development Fund. Arts organizations are eligible to apply for matching funds. Last year $9,000 came to Eugene. Contact Lane Regional Arts Council here or Oregon Arts Commission, 835 Summer St NE, Salem, 97301. And check off a few bucks on your tax refunds.

The Lane County Artists Slide Bank will create a centralized collection of slides of artists' works, plus information about the artists. Members of the public interested in purchasing or commissioning art, or organizing an exhibit, may use it at the Lane Regional Arts Council office. Charter listings are being accepted through Feb 1. They are located at 795 Willamette St, Room 416.

There is an International Mexico Caravan, a camping experience from March 19-April 3 for high school students, grades 10-12. Sponsored by the YMCA. Fee is $340. $25 deposit holds your place. There are a number of fund-raisers organized to help students raise money. Visit Mexican villages, a Franciscan mission, sunbathe on the beach. Stop in San Francisco and Arizona.

The Oregon Dept. of Energy sponsored a study called Solar Domestic Hot Water Systems in Oregon. It monitored 37 systems plus 8 conventional heaters as a control group. The typical solar system met about 40% of the energy needs for water heating and saved 1900 Kwhr. Some of the better systems provided over 70% of the annual hot water needs and saved 3000 Kwhr. These were the more recently installed systems. All indicating solar energy is practical in Oregon!

A benefit for the Northwest Working Press will be held Sat, Jan 29 at the Keystone Cafe. Mexican food—both vegetarian and with meat—will be served from 6-9 pm. Beer will be served also, beginning at 4 pm. The cost of a dinner ranges from $4.00-$6.00 (sliding scale) with side orders also available. Help the Press replace things lost in their recent break-in, and have a delicious dinner and a good time, too.
