Announcements

BRING Recycling not only accepts your glass, metal, paper and used motor oil for recycling—it's also the place in town to buy all kinds of glass "reusables." You can find anything from canning jars to collectibles—and a whole lot more—at the BRING warehouse. If you need any kind of glass jar or bottle, call BRING first, 746-3023. BRING Recycling—the place to buy inexpensive glass "reusables" and now with 13 locations you can BRING it in!

BRING Recycling is compiling a list of individuals interested in becoming members of their Board of Directors. BRING is Lane County's oldest, full-line, non-profit recycling agency and it maintains an ongoing educational outreach program. Write P.O. Box 885, Eugene, OR 97440.

More than $125 million in financial aid is available to help low- and middle-income students of all ages who plan to attend Oregon colleges. Application should be made as soon as possible—even for next fall. The money may be in the form of grants, work-study or low-interest loans. You may obtain a financial aid form from college financial aid offices, high school counselors or the State Scholarship Commission, 1445 Willamette, Eugene, 97401. All Oregon colleges use the same ones. See our calendar, Feb 1, Feb 2 for workshops with financial aid representatives. Call 726-2205, Frances, or 686-4166, Mary, or 342-2108, Ruth.

A 4-H Computer Club is open to all youth in the 4th-12th grades. You don't have to have a computer or know anything about them. Each child will have a chance to have a hands-on opportunity during the club meetings. The Micro-computer Society of America, who sponsors the class with Radio Shack and the Lane County Extension of OSU, will provide the leadership. One of the highlights will be an OSU-4H Computer Day in April. Call 687-4243 for information.

Looking ahead—the Eugene Convention Center is already planning for its largest convention yet. During July 19-26, 1984, Eugene will host the 1984 Olympic Scientific Congress. August Kirsch, president of the International Council of Sport, Science and Physical Education, has just visited Eugene to review the facilities. He is also director of the Federal Institute of Sports Science in Cologne, West Germany. Other sponsors of this event include UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization), U.S. Olympic Committee, International Council on Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, and UO College of Human Development and Performance. Why don't we start preparing now too? Special art exhibits could be held, crafts could be sold, entertainment could be planned—to the benefit of the visitors and Eugene businesses.

A benefit for the Northwest Working Press will be held Sat, Jan 29 at the Keystone Cafe. Mexican food—both vegetarian and with meat—will be served from 6-9 pm. Beer will be served also, beginning at 4 pm. The cost of a dinner ranges from $4.00-$6.00 (sliding scale) with side orders also available. Help the Press replace things lost in their recent break-in, and have a delicious dinner and a good time, too.

The Cougar Hot Springs are being considered again by the U.S. Forest Service. Among proposals under consideration: lease them to a commercial developer; restrict them to day-use only and remove the nearby campground at Boone Creek. In response, Friends of the Spring, Inc., a non-profit group, is forming to propose another form of stewardship for this natural resource. Their goals would be to come up with a long-term land use plan, rotate care-takers, discourage crime, alcohol and rowdiness, and maintain a natural setting for years to come. Call Friends at 683-9071 or 683-9052.

The Tibetan Library is open to the public every Tues & Thurs, 3-7:30 pm. Its purpose is acquiring, translating and preserving ancient and modern Tibetan philosophical, psychological, medical and religious texts, and to preserve and display Tibetan art. Free. 1159 Mill St. Call Bill at 342-2474 for more information.
