

Wednesday

2

Film

Annapurna: A Woman's Place, a 45-minute film on the Himalayan Expedition of 1978 in which the first women and the first Americans reached the summit. Free, 7 pm, EMU ballroom.

Speakers

Joan MacWorster speaks on Are You Showing the World the Real You? 8 pm, $1.50/members, $2.50/non-members. 8 pm, 75 N Jackson St, Network Singles sponsors.

How Fair is Workfare? Sponsored by Hunger Action Coalition. Sam Dominy (Lane Labor Council) and Donna Goetsch (Client's Council) speak on Reagan's new ideas for AFDC and Food Stamps clients. 7 pm, Methodist Church, 1376 Olive, 485-1755.

Virginia Vargas, coordinator of Centro Flora Tristan, Lima, Peru, speaks on Peasant Movements in Peru. 7:30 pm, 1236 Kincaid, $1.

Sports/Recreation

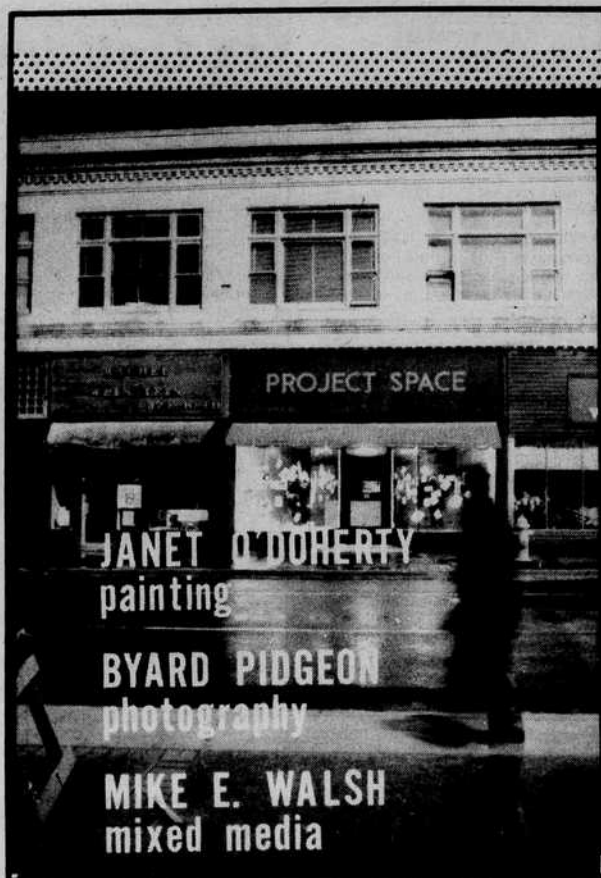

Cross Country Skiing for grades 7-12 sponsored by Eugene Parks and Rec. Register today for 3/5 trip. Meeting scheduled for 3/3. 7-8 pm. Call 687-5316 for information.

Radio

Blazers vs. San Diego, KEED 1450 AM. 7 pm.

Meetings

An Evening of Bhagwan at 3072 Willakenzie at 7-9 pm. 343-8516.

Project Space Gallery, at 39 E 10th in Eugene, presents New Works by the above named artists, through March 11.

In highland Peru, this Indian girl spreads corn to dry. The Eugene Council for Human Rights in Latin America gives us a glimpse into peasant life in Peru with a slide presentation entitled Peasant Movements in Peru. Wed, March 2, at 7:30 pm, at 1236 Kincaid. $1.50 donation.

FREE DENTAL EXAM

with this ad

Thomas Kopriva, D.D.S.

340 W. 10th Street

484-9175

WORTH LOOKING INTO...

Don't buy a computer with your eyes closed. Learn something about them first.

Visit Midland Cascade Computers. They'll answer your questions about Commodore hardware and software for business, educational and entertainment applications. Computer classes that fit your needs are available, too.

MIDLAND CASCADE COMPUTERS . . .
SOMETHING WORTH LOOKING INTO.

61 W. 8th

Downtown Eugene

344-2111

and it's our
Grand Opening Celebration!

We've made it through our first 60 days, and now it's time to declare a Gala Event.

3 DAYS OF CELEBRATING! Big Sales!
Special Prices! Demonstrations! Doorprize drawings EVERY 64 MINUTES! (Grand Prize is a Commodore 64!)

Nearly a quarter of a million dollars of computerware!

$7,000 worth of VIC-20 software, including games!

Joysticks, printers, keyboards, computer classes, programs, disc drives, monitors, video games, floppy discs, word processors, business packages and more and more and more!

Watch for Saturday's ad in the Register Guard for your Computer Shopping List.

February 26th, 27th & 28th Grand Celebration Special Hours: Saturday 9 to 9, Sunday Noon to 6 and Monday 9 to 6 p.m.

SEE YOU THERE!