

April 7 - April 13, 1983

What's Happening

This Week in Eugene/Springfield & Lane County

Vol. II No. 12 Apr. 7, 1983

FREE

Published Every Thursday

The New York Baroque Dance Company and Concert Royal present Harlequins, Gods and Dancers at the Hult Center Soreng Theatre, Sunday, April 10, at 7:30 pm. This performance includes live music, period costumes, and recreated dance from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. See this week's Highlights for other events scheduled for the company's three-day residency in Eugene.

Thursday 7

Classes/Workshops

Polarity Healing—theory and self help exercises to heal minor injuries and maintain radiant health. Class I: 11:30-1:30, introduction and pelvis work. Class II: 1:30-3:30, shoulders, brain and jaw work. Pre-registration required. $50. Ellen Greenlaw, 341-3560.

Parent Awareness—10 sessions, positive and creative approaches to childrearing while helping parents experience personal growth. Call to preregister, 484-6797, 343-2384. $45/person, $75/couple.

Cults, Occult and the New Age. A Christian perspective on the movements. Thursdays, 7-9 pm. Free. 484-1197.

EMU Crafts Center continues registration for their many classes including Ceramics and Drawing for children. Call 686-4361 for information.

Theatre

The Public Eye, a one-act comedy by Peter Shaffer, featuring John Duncan, Don Scorby and Rebecca Proctor, will be performed in a cabaret setting upstairs of the Brass Rail. Directed by Martha Wehmeier. Over 21. $2.50. 9 pm.

Speakers

Bearing the Burden: Women & Poverty will be the topic of Dr. Thelma C. Davidson Adair at monthly Peace & Justice Forum of Clergy & Laity Concerned. She is President of Church Women United. 7 pm, Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry St. 6 pm soup supper ($1.50/adults, 75¢/children). Free childcare provided.

Dance Music

Live music—country, country rock. The Factory, 4740 Main St. Springfield. No cover. 9 pm-2 am.

Country Dance, caller Rick Meyers. Clogging demonstration. Sponsored by Oregon Librarians Assoc. 8:30 pm, $3.50. Valley River Inn, McKenzie Room.

Larry Younger and the Band from Lake Tahoe, through April 9. Top 40 & oldies. $1.50. International Lounge, Shilo Inn, I-5 & Beltline.

Film

Women and Health, videotape by Portland's Feminist Health Center will be shown and discussed. Most aspects of health as well as control of the medical profession. Free. 7 pm. UO IMC Studio D (near Library).

Meetings

Weekly meditation instruction, public welcome. Siddha Meditation Center, 1628 Lawrence St. 7:30 pm.

Parents Without Partners, orientation, 7 pm, followed by general meeting at 8 pm. Westminster Presbyterian Church, 777 Coburg Rd.

Thursday

Concert Music

Slow Train featuring Lee Garrett. Nostalgia, NE 24th & Vaughan, Portland. Through 4/9.

B.B. King, with opener Paul Delay. Silva Theater, Hult Center.

Pamela Goodyear, vocals and guitar, performs for Women's Night at Zoo Zoo's Restaurant. Free. 6-9 pm, 454 Willamette St.

TV/Video

Cable 11 (Community Access) features: Metamorphosis, 6 pm; Can Do Show, 6:30; Happier Returns, Income Tax Preparation by CPA. Part 1, questions for those who fill out own forms. Part 2, how to choose an accountant. 7 pm; Dialogue, Lane County Sheriff Dave Burks on crime control and prevention. 7:30; Libertarian Options, principles of liberty. 8:00; Spiritual Revolution, personal transformation. 8:30; Winds of Change, Katherine Madden, chairperson of East Blair Housing Coop. 9:00; Nicola's Studio One, instruction in oil painting. 9:30.

Look for our special
Garden Guide—April 14