Film

Woman's Eye View, a festival of films by and about women, closes today with a focus on life and strength. The 1982 USSR film Vasilisa and Vasilisa, by Irina Poplavskaya, one of the few Russian women directors, offers a sympathetic view of women in Russian peasant society against the backdrop of the dramatic changes in Russian life from the 1930s to the 1970s, while at the same time offering a touching universal statement. With Rubber Stamp Film, an animated rubber stamp dance by Joanna Priestly. 8 pm at the Portland Art Museum, 1219 S.W. Park, Portland. $3/$2.

At the University of Oregon tonight, the film The Tall Blond Man with One Black Shoe shows at 7 and 9 pm, 180 PLC. $1.50/$1.

Sunday 5
