A Home Improvement Show sponsored by the Home Builders Association of Lane County will be held Sept 15-18 at the Lane County Fairgrounds Convention Center in Eugene. This show features home improvement ideas, remodeling, workshops, demonstrations and drawings. Businesses interested in reserving exhibit space should call Helen Knudson at 746-2523 or 746-2525.

The Lane County Extension Service is offering a series of newsletters called Nine Months: Nutrition and Pregnancy. Subscription forms can be obtained from the Lane County Extension Service at 950 W. 13th or by calling 687-4243. The Extension also is offering a series of newsletters called Oregon's Children for parents of infants, toddlers and preschoolers. To sign up, contact 687-4243.

The English as a Second Language program at Lane Community College is seeking volunteer tutors to help refugee and foreign students adjust to a new language and culture. Tutoring is done on an informal one-to-one basis and requires an interest in people and a desire to help. No prior teaching experience is necessary. Time and location are flexible. For more information call 484-2126, ext. 586, or 1059 Willamette St.

Blair Island Restaurant is now jurying for its late summer and fall art shows. For more information call Godfrey, 484-0758.

Designer's Forum is a group of Eugene-Springfield graphic designers, photographers, illustrators, painters and advertising specialists. This group has functioned as a meeting and exchange forum within the industry and has initiated a program to broaden public awareness and understanding of the industry. The Designer's Forum will present Business Images: An Exhibit of Promotional Graphics by Eugene Area Designers. The intent of this exhibit is to display the finest in business promotional materials as judged by members of the business and arts community. The exhibit is open to all pieces created locally for business use. Entry deadline is July 29th, 1983. Deliver entries to Rubick & Funk, 1234 Pearl St. The exhibit will be at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts Community Room Gallery from September 8th to October 16th. Call 683-3235 for more information.

The Social Aids and Concerns Commission at St. Mary's Episcopal Church would like to know about organizations which need financial aid for the year of 1984. If your organization deals with the basic needs of people in the community and would like to apply for financial assistance, then call Pat Cook, Parish Administrator, 343-9253, and ask for a 1984 application for Social Aids and Concerns Funds. Applications will be due by August 15.

Help prevent massage practice from becoming illegal in Oregon. The Massage Board is being reviewed in August by the Legislature's Sunset Review Committee with some suggestion that masseuses do not have sufficient training and that only nurses and doctors should be allowed to practice massage. If you support massage, you could help by writing a brief letter stating why and mail it by July 31 to PO Box 3588, Eugene, OR 97403. They need 1500 letters. For more information call 343-0000.

The UO Psychology Clinic is offering an 8-week course, Coping with Depression, to help depressed individuals learn new skills to help cope more effectively with life's problems. This course is offered in a small group format and will be taught by UO doctoral students. Interested persons can call 686-4966 to schedule an interview to determine eligibility for the course.

By the end of this year the U.S. and its NATO allies plan to begin deployment of Cruise and Pershing II missiles in Europe. Peace activists around the world are organizing to prevent the scheduled deployment. In Oregon, Citizen Action for Lasting Security has made these weapons a major focus of action. CALS invites you to a free workshop to find out more about these new nuclear weapons and about the threat they pose to peace and arms control. The workshop will be held July 14 at 7 pm at the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid St. It will feature a showing of "The Time Has Come" and a discussion by Carl Carmichael of the U.S. Speech Dept. on public speaking. Call 343-8548 for more details.

Singers, dancers, instrumentalists, jugglers, mimes and other entertainers are invited to be part of the Street Performer's Program. Performers who want to entertain for tips on Eugene's Downtown Mall are invited to attend a Street Performer's licensing session, Tuesdays at 2 pm at the Arts Council Office. Anyone interested in becoming a licensed performer may attend a licensing session. For more information, call the Arts Council office at 485-2278.

The 1983 Human Services Directory (HSD) is now available for purchase. Volunteers at Switchboard Information and Referral worked for over six months to compile, organize and produce this book. The Human Services Directory is a listing of non-profit community services and support groups. It is designed to be used by community organizations, social workers, professionals and individuals who desire information about community resources offered throughout Lane County. The HSD is available for $5. Copies may be obtained from Switchboard, 556 Pearl St, Eugene, OR 97401. Add $1 for postage or phone 342-HELP.

The Kalapuya: Native People of the Willamette Valley, an exhibit of the history and artifacts of the natives of this area, will be at WISTEC July 10-September 2.

Museum Hopping

Summer's a good time to catch up on local museums. You'll find a sprinkling of out-of-towners, some kids who left their bikes parked outside, and families who've decided to vacation at home. Bring a picnic lunch to eat in the park, or treat yourself afterwards at a nearby restaurant—make an outing of it.

The Lane County Museum is one of our community's treasures. Because people who emigrated to the Willamette Valley tended to stay put, the Lane County Museum has an unusually rich collection of objects that came here via covered wagon or by ship around the Horn. While looking through a Time-Life book on women of the West recently, I was surprised to find six or seven photographs of artifacts from the Lane County Museum. Summer hours are 10 am to 4 pm, Wednesday through Saturday, and there is no admission charge. The Lane County Museum is located at the Lane County Fairgrounds, 13th and Monroe.

The Springfield Museum, open 11 am to 5 pm, Wednesday through Saturday, is at 550 Main. Admission is free. The Sandal and the Cave, a traveling exhibit from the U of O Museum of Natural History on Native traditions of the Northern Great Basin, opens there July 2. You can also see oil paintings by Margorie Fletcher (through August 1) and an exhibit on the Springfield Millrace.

The University of Oregon Museum of Natural History, located just across Franklin Boulevard from the Duck Pond, will be open from 12:00 to 5:00 pm, Tuesday through Saturday, through July 30. The Museum will close for August and part of September, reopening September 20. Through July, you can still take in the magnificent display of Macedonian Bridal Costumes, along with special exhibits on The Influence of Darwin and Tracing the Mystery of the Useful Animal. Admission is free.

Like the Museum of Natural History, the University of Oregon Museum of Art is suffering from budget cuts that have forced it to close for the summer. The Museum of Art closed July 1 and will not reopen until September 7—a real disappointment not only to local residents but also to out-of-town visitors. Watch for a blockbuster Chinese art exhibit at the Museum of Art this fall; Decoding Dragons opens October 2.

Willamette Science and Technology Center (WISTEC) will be open throughout the summer. Hours are 12 to 5 pm, Tuesday through Sunday, with Planetarium shows on weekends at 1 and 3 pm. The Kalapuya: Native Peoples of the Willamette Valley opens July 10. Coming Up Roses, the story of Chase Gardens, is also on display. Admission is $2/adults, $1/students and seniors, 75¢/children 6-18. WISTEC is located next to Autzen Stadium, at 2300 Centennial Blvd.

DMA
If You Could
Create Your Entire Life
The Way You Want It To Be Easily & Simply
Would You Want That?
If You Would, You Might Consider DMA.

DMA offers a 5-week course in which you gain the ability to have what you want in your life. It's about you and your power to create it. You learn specific, practical techniques for creating your own unique vision, manifesting that vision fully, and mastering all the steps involved. The results are direct, immediate, and lasting.

We hold free introductory evenings to discuss DMA and to answer all your questions. These evenings are designed to provide you with an opportunity to find out if DMA is something you want.
