Evenings at the Keystone

At last! My favorite breakfast and lunch stop is now open for evening meals—on the weekends, Friday-Sunday. The makers of those incredible too-large-for-your-plate whole-grain pancakes for 95¢ and the irresistible freshly ground coffee (and decaf) are now offering many of their regular menu items and a weekly special during the dinner hours, 5:30-9:30 pm. And everything on the dinner menu is home-cooked, natural, nutritious and priced at $4 or less.

Last weekend we feasted on the dinner special—pizza muffins with sauteed vegetables and tossed green salad for only $2.95. The homemade herb English muffins were split and topped with sauce, cheese, olives, and green peppers, and were not only filling; they were delicious! Nicely sauteed carrots and celery and a green salad with my favorite lemon tamari dressing rounded out this meal.

The Keystone regularly features such items as omelettes, hamburgers, salads, homemade soups and chili, and Mexican dishes such as huevos rancheros, quesadillas, and tostadas, to name a few. Keystone owner/baker George bakes up fresh breads, muffins, cinnamon rolls, pies, and other desserts daily. The cornbread served with soup or chili is one of my favorites.

The Keystone will soon be serving beer and wine. They've been approved by the OLCC but are waiting for final action by local government.

The Keystone Cafe is open daily from 7 am-2 pm, and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings from 5:30-9:30 pm. They're located at 395 W. 5th Ave. in Eugene, between Lincoln and Lawrence Streets.

To celebrate the new dinner hours, What's Happening is making the following offer: During dinner hours, Friday-Sunday, July 8-10, the tenth (10th) person to ask for the What's Happening Special will receive his or her dinner free, compliments of What's Happening. This includes one entree and a drink.
