

Dixieland Jazz Jubilee

The 3rd Annual Emerald Valley Dixieland Jazz Jubilee, Sept 2-5, offers 98 hours of music beginning Friday afternoon and concluding with a Grand Finale, Sunday, 12 midnight til 2:30 am. Leading guests include Phil Howe from the San Francisco Bay Area, Jan Sutherland of Liverpool, England, and Burt Wilson also of Sacramento/San Francisco fame. Ten bands, a total of 91 musicians from Vancouver, B.C., south to San Diego and including local and regional favorites from past Jubilees, will be there.

Jan Sutherland has achieved international fame touring South America and Europe, including France, Scandinavia, and Germany. She also performed to packed houses as the star attraction at the Sacramento Jubilee. Many have likened her style to Bessie Smith of Dixieland fame. Phil Howe, clarinetist, was instrumental in reviving traditional jazz in Sacramento along with other lovers of hot jazz. He went on to play with Turk Murphy, and to lead his own group, "Phil Howe's Phabulous Phrisco Phunction," as well as to become a member of the San Francisco Swing Express. Burt Wilson organized the "Sacramento High School Gang" in the 40's, whose members included Phil Howe. A trombonist, Burt plays with many groups and is writing a complete history of Sacramento Jazz.

Returning for their 3rd year at the Jubilee is the Rainier Jazz Band from Seattle. They have also played at the last seven Sacramento Jubilees, having been acclaimed for their traditional style of New Orleans music. Pussyfoot Stompers, an insanely daring local group, have shown that "dixie" can be played by a quartet... unrehearsed! From San Diego is the South "OF" Frisco Band also playing dixie. The John McKinley Jazz Band features John with 40 years experience picking the banjo, a two-beat style and a flair for technical detail. The Phoenix Jazzers, from Vancouver, B.C., play a "British" style of hot jazz, and were wildly received last year. Prof. Plum's Jazz is dedicated to jazz greats of the 20's (Jelly Roll Morton, King Oliver, etc.) and utilizes varied backgrounds, from rock to symphonic, to achieve its unique sound. An upbeat style keeps the Capital City Jazz Band, formed in 1974 in Salem, in demand all over western Oregon and Washington. The Omega Jazz Band is a combination of the Phoenix Jazzers and the Rainier Jazz Band, and they also packed them in last year.

A "Washboard Whoopy," Banjo-Rama, Sunday services, a golf tournament for novices and serious golfers, barbecue ribs or chicken, and a Grand Finale featuring Omega, Jan Sutherland and a total of four bands by the early Monday morning conclusion, round out the event for even the insatiable jazz fan. The music on the patio is free Saturday and Sunday, but there will be nearly round the clock entertainment in the Lounge, Banquet Room and Clubhouse of the Emerald Valley Inn as well. Tickets, actually "badges," are $20 for all 4 days by pre-registration; $25 at the door; and day badges are $10 at the door. Jubilee guests will also be able to use the swimming and sauna facilities for $2. Send name, address and check payable to the Traditional Jazz Society of Oregon, P.O. Box 7432, Eugene, OR 97401, or call 726-0654 for more information.

Jan Sutherland, vocalist from Liverpool, England, brings a style reminiscent of Bessie Smith to the Dixieland Jazz Jubilee. Jan has performed at the Sacramento Jubilee for the past 3 years, and has toured South America, France, Germany and Scandinavia.
