Dreams

Charles Ponce, author of Kabbalah, The Game of Wizards, and a forthcoming trilogy on psychology and alchemy to be published in 1984, will present a two-day workshop on dreams, November 19-20. He is currently a therapist in private practice in San Francisco, founder and director of the Labyrinth Institute, and well-known throughout the country as a lecturer on mythology and dream interpretation. Preregistration is required. Call 484-0432.

Tree of Joy

The Tree of Joy will kick off its fourth annual program Wednesday, November 23 at 10:30 a.m. at the Valley River Center.
Santa Claus will preside over the handing of some of the 3000 ornaments on Wednesday. Each ornament is labeled with the first name, age and suggested gift for a person in need. Shoppers then select an ornament and return the gift to the tree within five days. This project is sponsored by the State of Oregon Interdivi-sional Volunteer Services with the hope of providing Christmas to children, disabled adults and senior citizens who might go without gifts at Christmas. Call 687-7475 for more information.

Disarmament

The disarmament movement is gaining strength around the world, as people unite together for the common issue of survival.
Recently, while traveling up to protest production of cruise missiles in Kent, Washington, women from various backgrounds experienced a commonality around the issue of disarmament. From that experience the Women and Religion Committee and Women for Disarmament are working together and will jointly produce a Benefit Blintz Brunch on Sunday, November 20, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. This is open to the community and will offer cheese blintzes, juice, coffee and tea for $1.25. Following the brunch at 3:30, Women-kin will have their monthly meeting, this month's topic being "Physical strength and personal security: How do they affect a woman's spirit?" The Spirit of Amazon Kung Fu." Women-kin is open to any woman who wishes to listen and/or share.

Call Janet at 344-9316 if you have questions or would like to work with this group.

Community Goals

The Eugene Community
Goals Committee is seeking additional Eugene residents interested in participating in the Community Goals and Policies Conference. Delegates to the 1984 Conference will be recommending to the City Council an update and expansion of the city's major policy document.
The expansion will include three additional topics—public safety, culture and leisure, and local intergovernmental issues.

The Community Goals Committee, comprised of two city councillors and two planning commissioners, is looking for a balanced representation of the community in terms of geographical location, age, sex, income, occupation, and ethnic background. Contact Pat Decker at the Eugene Planning Department.
