ARICA

Survival of the planet
depends on humanity
evolving to a new level of consciousness.

The solutions to the imbalances in the external world lie within our balanced selves. And within each of us lies a powerful natural resource—our own inner strength.

We would like to introduce Arica to you in a one-day workshop which shares practical, wholistic tools for developing that inner strength and living successfully in the 20th century. This workshop includes vitality generation techniques, stress reduction exercises, Psychocalisthenics (movement with breath for balancing the entire psyche).
