Studio Dance Concerts

On Dec. 3 and 4, Studio 1 at the Hult Center will be the setting for performances by some of Eugene's finest and most innovative dancers.

C. Rider Dance Company will perform a "ritual trilogy" which explores the feminine, the masculine, and the magnetic forces between them; Paranoid about human nature; and a solo by Mary Seereiter called The Long Journey.

Joint Forces dancers Karen Nelson and Alito Alessi, pictured here, will do their already acclaimed first choreographed duet, The Swan Has Flown to the Mountain Lake, accompanied by original live music by Michael Harrison. This unique and exciting work won the artists a standing ovation at the Hult Center in October.

Soloist Mary Johnson will perform two dances, based on original musical compositions, Bahr by Roger Luther, and Mondo Rondo by Doug Clark and Paul Ollswang.

Oslund and Company/Dance will do Potter Street Pieces, choreographed by Mary Oslund and accompanied by live original music by Mark Van Liew.

Studio 1 doors open at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $4.

Oregon Repertory Theatre presents Charles Dickens' classic, A Christmas Carol, starting Dec. 15 and running through Christmas Eve.

A Christmas Carol

The Oregon Repertory Theatre will premiere a special adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic, A Christmas Carol, in the Soreng Theatre at the Hult Center for the Performing Arts, opening Dec. 15 and playing through Christmas Eve.

Under the direction of David Lunney, the production welcomes ORT veterans Bill Ritchie as Scrooge and Michael Cadigan as his nephew, who have returned to Eugene for this special performance from The Old Globe Theatre in San Diego and The Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland. They are joined by a host of other ORT veterans and newcomers.

Traditional Christmas songs, colorful sets and period costumes, giant puppets, exotic masks, and special effects combine to create a magical Christmas experience for everyone.

Evening performances are 7:30 pm, Tues-Sat. Sunday matinee is at 2 pm. Tickets are on sale at the Hult Center Box Office, 687-5000.

ARICA

Survival of the planet depends on humanity evolving to a new level of consciousness.

The solutions to the imbalances in the external world lie within our balanced selves. And within each of us lies a powerful natural resource—our own inner strength.

We would like to introduce Arica to you in a one-day workshop which shares practical, wholistic tools for developing that inner strength and living successfully in the 20th century. This workshop includes vitality generation techniques, stress reduction exercises, Psychocalisthenics (movement with breath for balancing the entire psyche).
