the albatross

watch
my gentle friend
how he moves
through the shadows of the night with the slow
quiet steps
of a monk
or a thief.

observe how his o.d. green jacket hangs
like an albatross
from hunched, straining shoulders
the unbearable weight of an invisible pain.

you see, my curious friend
the war
vietnam
the leper's war
he knelt
before the altar of war.
he was offered up in sacrifice
there
was annointed in blood
there
there, became infected
with his dis ease
he would touch you
my sad friend
but fears that he is still contagious
for jealous lovers
beckon him from the past.

lovers with large gaping holes in their heads
lovers with maggots
devouring their swollen bodies lovers with eyes frozen in faces of twisted horror.

he needs time
to say good bye to old lovers
to cleanse
this leprosy from his heart and mind to wrench
the albatross from his war-torn flesh.
so be patient
my gentle friend.
