Dear Reader:

In spite of the unseasonable weather we're having, we all know that Spring is on its way. You can tell by the crocuses poking up through the snow—but also by the surge of fresh energy and activity which typically happens this time of year. The next four issues of WHAT'S HAPPENING herald the new season with lots of special Springtime features:

- Feb. 27 Lane Regional Arts Council's March-April Arts Calendar, with previews of the next two months' arts events in Eugene, Springfield, and Lane County—art exhibits, theatre, dance, music and the like. This handy "pull-out" poster is designed to hang on your wall (or refrigerator). Also, look for our regular Back Page Coupons!
- Mar. 6 The ExplOregon Coast—the second edition of our monthly coast supplement featuring a coast calendar, articles, photos and lots of ideas for spending time on the beautiful Oregon coast.
- Mar. 13 Special focus on Nutrition; Martha Wagner's "Eat Beat"; the Irish Festival (a complete schedule of festivities); and the Maude Kerns Art Center Spring Class Schedule.
- Mar. 20 TWO WEEK EDITION (Mar. 20-Apr. 2); winner of our Second Annual Story Contest, "Eugene 2050" (there's still time to enter); WISTEC's Spring Class Schedule; our end-of-the-month Back Page Coupons; and MUCH MORE!

Please make special note of the March 20 two-weeker, particularly if you're planning an event for that time period (Mar. 20-Apr. 2). We need your Calendar listings and Classifieds for that issue by March 13, 5 pm. Display ads are due on Monday, March 17.
