TOWNSEND JAGLOM
ALWAYS
A FILM ABOUT
Love, Marriage
& Divorce

Once in a great while there's a movie that you not only recommend, critique, etc., but that you have to take your friends to see — I mean take them yourself, practically by the hand, because you want not only to hear but
to feel their reactions, sitting in the next seat, watching them as much as the movie. Henry Jaglom's Always is that kind of movie for me. I want all my friends to see it. And all my cousins. And my sister and brothers.
Even my parents. And my friends again —
friends should see it twice. —L.A. Weekly

"A wonderful movie ... (full of) warmth—sensitivity—honest emotion. You'll be touched by this extraordinary film."
