"Initiations" by the Human Dance Company

The Human Dance Company brings its first full-blown performance to the stage since moving to Eugene this year. They will be in the Soreng Theater, Hult Center at 7:30 pm on Friday, May 2.

The philosophical and artistic intentionality of Andre Carpenter, artistic director, is an integral aspect of the purpose of The Human Dancing Company. "My essential theme—as a creative artist and in my personal life—is the process of individuation, i.e. the unfoldment of individual consciousness towards universal wholeness, the 'hero's journey' which I call The Path of the Actor. This process implies disidentification with collective assumptions, beliefs, habits... it implies detachment from the world of cults-and-taboos. I guess I got captivated by 'the ultimate questions'—like 'who am I?', 'why am I here?', etc. when I was very young, and I led my whole life in relation to them. Is that what made me a creative artist?"

The titles of some of the dances may give a taste of the show: "When Marriage Becomes Friendship," "Voices of Anima," "Aloneness Together" and "Initiation to Manhood." The eclectic choices of musicians also tells us about the variety of the program: Bach, Brahms, Paul Horn, Buffy Sainte Marie, Bob Dylan, Laurie Anderson and more.

Tickets are $6, $7 and $8 and are available at Hult Center Outlets and by calling 687-5000.
