New Dance Classes

Kiken Chin, dancer/choreographer, recently moved to Eugene from New York City where he performed with Kei Take's Moving Earth.

He studied and performed ballet and modern dance in Osaka and Tokyo before moving to the United States in 1976. Since 1982, he has devoted his volcanic energy to choreography and performing his on-going saga, "Between." He has been awarded a 1983-84 Creative Artists Public Service Program choreography fellowship, a 1984 Interarts grant from The New York State Council on the Arts and a 1986 Portland Metropolitan Art Commission grant. "I'd like to attempt to break stereotypes about dance. The concept of modern dance to me is an expression of personal experience through everyday life. I work not only from everyday life to art, but also from art to everyday life, stressing the importance of finding something personal—images, feelings, experiences—to relate to in choreography and performances.

The awareness of yourself in everyday life becomes a source of creative images."

He is teaching dance classes at Dance Spectrum, 3411 Willamette, 683-5294, on Mondays and Wednesdays, at 2:30-3:30 pm for children (8-12 yrs.) and 8-9:30 pm for teens and adults. $6 for a single class, $20 for 4, $36 for 8. And he is also forming additional classes.
For further information call: 485-0558.

Kiken Chin has recently moved to Eugene from New York City and is giving dance classes at Dance Spectrum, 3411 Willamette Street.
