Farewell to Greg Hall

Eugene jazz lovers gather this weekend, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 8 and 9, at the Oregon Electric Station to bid a fond farewell and best wishes to one of their favorite musicians, Greg Hall. Hall will be performing on the trumpet in a quartet situation with other fine local musicians, Andre St. James on the bass, Larry Cavilier on piano, and Alan Keown on drums. The group performs standard and original compositions in the contemporary jazz tradition.

As longtime director of bands at South Eugene High School, Hall has been influential in developing the musical tastes of many of the fine young musicians on the local scene, such as the newly-formed jazz group Synergy, composed of some of South Eugene's up and coming young talent. In addition to his work in the public schools, Hall is the conductor of the increasingly popular Eugene Jazz Greg Hall, who's been a strong force in the jazz scene and a teacher at South Eugene High, is leaving town. He'll play a farewell gig at Oregon Electric Station this weekend.

Orchestra. He has played trumpet with Earth, Wind and Fire, Chuck Mangione, Joe Sample, George Cables and Diahann Carroll, as well as with the Oregon and Dallas symphony orchestras. Originally from Oregon, Hall received his degree in music from North Texas State University. He leaves the Eugene area to take up a similar teaching position with the Beaverton schools.
