

Laundry and Bourbon

Thursday night, August 21, at Maude Kerns Art Center, the newly formed actors ensemble, Esprit de Corps, invites the community to a pre-opening benefit performance of Laundry and Bourbon. Admission will be two cans of food or a cash donation to Food for Lane County. The James McLure play about women's lives in a small town will be performed in the main gallery, 1910 E. 15th, at 8 pm.

Laundry and Bourbon will open Friday with a special opening night performance by singer Liz Klute of Wolf Creek. The play will run for five performances only, August 22 and 23, 28, 29 and 30. Tickets are $3.50 general admission and are available at Backstage Dancewear on the downtown mall or at the door.

As the companion piece to McLure's Lone Star, Laundry and Bourbon gives us a glimpse at the inner strength needed to exist in a world that's sometimes just "too hot and burnt for people" — as well as the quiet joys of laundry, TV game shows, good friends, and bourbon.

The play is unique in that its three characters are women, and through McLure's delightful and rapid-fire dialogue, we can share in their sometimes hilarious, sometimes painfully honest views of life.
