Spring Rhapsody

Many and many a moon ago
Between the mountains and the sea
Was born a voice that you may know
By the call letters KLCC.
And this voice became with no other aim
Than to speak for you and for me.
Riding on the blue wing of spring things to be,
This voice of our choice blossoms KLCC.
To spring's pungent flower flies, ardent, the bee.
So in jazz gentle bower lies KLCC.
A constitution of wisdom's grace and gentle authority
Carried aloft by a way of winds,
Charged electromagnetically.
Rhapsody rappin' I be.
Jazzin' jammin' fusion bluesin' jonesin' KLCC.
Canada's wind dispelling the southern mist reminds us—
In contrary Eugene, spring comes from the north.
Oregon rains warm, turning buds to blossoms,
Grasses yellow-green, spring is here—
Like KLCC—in stunning harmony!
And this station KLCC allows us,
Like the first sounds of spring,
With our ears to see.
Beside the sea, from out of the blue,
Comes the sound salvation KLCC,
The music-lover's guru.
A martian stopped by, dropped from the sky,
Tuned his radar to 89.7
Thought he'd reached Cool Cat Heaven.
With such a protector, touch not the selector,
At four-score-and-nine leave it be!
So play the music and merry be
For luscious life still surges through you and through me.
And many a many turn to come
The world changed will be, at last sweet harmony.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HARRY EPSTEIN,
THE GRAND PRIZE WINNER, AND THANKS TO ALL WHO CONTRIBUTED TO OUR COLLECTIVE RHAPSODY!
