Sports/Recreation

Eugene Emeralds play Salem at 7:30 pm in Civic Stadium. $4/$3.

Theater

Brigadoon continues for Mainstage Theater. In this Lerner and Loewe musical, two modern Americans stumble upon a highland village which awakens just once each 100 years. Last performances are tonight and Saturday, and are under the stars at 8:30 pm, Central Plaza, Eugene Downtown Mall. Advance tickets are $5 general, $4 seniors and children under 12, at The Bon, Literary Lion, and the Mainstage box office at 45 W. Broadway. 683-4368.

Graceland by Ellen Byron continues for Mallomar Productions, running through Saturday. Filled with memories and songs about Elvis Presley, the setting is Graceland, Elvis's Memphis mansion, where two women compete to be first to enter. Shows include a 7:30 pm radio tribute to Elvis, with a 8 pm curtain time. At New Zone Gallery, 411 High Street, with $4 tickets at Backstage Dancewear or at the door. 683-6866, 345-7152.

Leader of the Pack continues for Mainstage Cabaret at the Hult Center. A smash Broadway musical, it relives the days when rock 'n' roll began. Ellie Greenwich and friends wrote the music and lyrics—Greenwich is remembered for the era's hits Chapel of Love, Da Doo Ron Ron, and Do Wah Diddy. Melina Neal directs an 18-member cast. Performances are at 7:30 pm tonight through Sunday in the Soreng Theater. $8.50-$9.50 tickets are at Hult outlets and at 45 W. Broadway. 683-4368, 687-5000.

1776 by Eugene Festival of Musical Theater is at Silva Hall, Hult Center. An award-winning Broadway musical, producing director Ed Ragozzino calls it "one of the best musicals written." 1776 depicts events leading to the signing of the Declaration of Independence, performances are at 8 pm August 6, 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 15, or at 2:30 pm August 9. Tickets are $6-$16 at usual Hult outlets. 345-0028, 687-5000.
