PAT METHENY: IN CONCERT

The three-time Grammy Award winning Pat Metheny Group will perform in the Hult Center's Silva Concert Hall Wednesday night, September 2. The Group is touring 27 cities in the U.S. and Canada promoting their new record Still Life Talking.

The Pat Metheny Group has performed and recorded for more than a decade. The 33-year-old Metheny was the first American pop artist to extensively tour the Soviet Union. Always the innovator, Metheny was a key player in both the fusion movement and, more recently, with his popularization of the guitar-synthesizer. Downbeat magazine describes Metheny's music as a blend of "bebop chops, C&W pastoral evocations, and touches of grittier styles like harmolodics and funk." The Group's latest record, Still Life Talking, fuses jazz, rock, and Brazilian styles.

The show begins at 8 p.m.
